Employee Request

For Leave of Absence under the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and/or State C. G. S. 5-248a (Family and medical leave from employment)
 (To be completed by Employee)

Form #: FMLA-HR1
 Revision Date: 3/2013

Please read carefully the information regarding your family/medical leave entitlements under federal (FMLA) and state (C.G.S. 5-248a) law. Then complete this form (pages 1 – 4) and return it to your agency’s Human Resources Unit. Be sure to attach or provide promptly any required documentation.

Under federal FMLA, employees are entitled to take up to 12 weeks of unpaid leave in a 12-month period provided they meet eligibility and reason for leave requirements. Additionally, permanent state employees have an entitlement of up to 24-weeks of unpaid family medical leave in a two-year period. You may be eligible for leave under one or the other law, under both or none. Depending upon several factors, if you are eligible under both and the reason for leave qualifies under both laws, the leave may count simultaneously toward both entitlements.

Military Family Leave: Federal: Eligible employees who are family members of covered servicemembers (including covered veterans) will be able to take up to 26 workweeks of unpaid federal FMLA leave in a “single 12-month period” to care for a covered servicemember or a covered veteran with a covered serious illness or injury incurred or aggravated in the line of duty on covered active duty and/or up to 12 workweeks of unpaid federal FMLA leave because of any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that employee’s spouse, son, daughter, or parent is a covered servicemember on covered active duty. State: Eligible employees will be able to take up to 26 weeks of unpaid leave in a two-year period to care for an immediate family member or next of kin who is a current member of the US Armed Forces, National Guard or military reserves and is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, an inpatient, or on the temporary disability retired list for a serious illness or injury. Under both state and federal law, an employee can take caregiver leave only one time per covered servicemember, per injury.

Note: A leave request based on an employee’s serious health condition or the serious health condition of an employee’s spouse, child or parent must be accompanied by a verifying medical certification from a licensed physician or other “healthcare provider.” (Form P-33A—Employee or Form P-33B—Caregiver)

Note: A leave request for “military family leave” must be accompanied by a certification (Form DOL-WH384 – Certification of Qualifying Exigency; Form DOL-WH385 Certification for Serious Injury or Illness of Current Servicemember; or Form DOL-WH385-V Certification for Serious Injury or Illness of a Veteran).

(1) Birth of Your Child

(a) Mother – Your absence for the “disability” portion of your pregnancy will automatically be charged to any accrued sick leave. Once you have exhausted your sick leave, you may use personal leave, vacation accruals, comp time or unpaid leave. Once you have completed the “disability” portion of your pregnancy (i.e., you have been certified as able to perform the requirements of your job by your attending physician), you may not use accrued sick leave. You may, however, use parental days, personal leave, vacation accruals, and/or comp time depending on your collective bargaining unit contract for the balance of your leave. This election must be made before you begin your leave. If you do not elect to substitute parental days, personal leave, vacation accruals or comp time, the leave will be unpaid.

Personal Leave: _____

Comp Time Leave Accruals: _____

If requesting “intermittent leave” or “reduced leave schedule”, complete the information below.

Intermittent*/Reduced Schedule Leave (federal only):

Under federal FMLA, under certain conditions, leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule for:

- A “serious health condition” (child’s, spouse’s, parent’s or employee’s).
- Military Family Leave – to care for a covered servicemember or covered veteran with a “covered serious illness or injury.”
- Military Family Leave – because of a “qualifying exigency.”

State family/medical leave law (C.G.S. 5-248a) contains no provision for intermittent or reduced leave. However, General Letter No. 217-A outlines the procedures under which a full-time employee may return from a medical or maternity leave on a part-time basis.

(Answer “yes” or “no”) _____ I am requesting authorization for “intermittent leave”*, or (Answer “yes” or “no”) _____ I am requesting authorization for “reduced leave” schedule”.

If yes, explain. _____

* “Intermittent leave” is leave taken in separate blocks of time due to a single qualifying reason.

 “Reduced leave schedule” is a leave schedule that reduces an employee’s usual number of working hours per work-week, or hours per workday. It is a change in the employee’s schedule for a period of time, normally from full-time to part-time.
