COURSE SYLLABUS

Course title: College Forum: Success in Allied Health

Course #: COL 100

Course description: 1 semester hour

This College Forum course introduces strategies and skills for success at NCCC and beyond. Students will learn how to be proactive in their educational pursuits and how to access a broad range of support services that are available. This one credit class will help students navigate their way to NCCC and ultimately achieve their goals. Students will also develop basic computer skills including email, word processing, and web navigation through the use of Blackboard. This course does not fill an Allied Health Program requirement.

Goals: The ultimate goal of this course is to prepare students for success in college-level science classes by developing a strong background in basic essential Allied Health concepts and by developing fundamental college level study skills.

Outcomes: At the conclusion of the course the student will be able to:

- Critically evaluate print and electronic information for its currency, relevancy, authority, accuracy and purpose.
- Describe what they think college will be like and compare these things to the expectations of the university community.
- Describe expectations of expected degree program and develop a realistic plan for achieving their academic goals.
- Use written and oral communication to discover, develop, and articulate ideas and viewpoints.
- Examine challenges to achieving their goals (management of time, finances and other circumstances) and develop a plan to overcome personal challenges.
- Construct a plan for a successful path into and through completion of a degree or certificate program and beyond. Additional Outcomes
- Evaluate employment opportunities in Health Care
- Identify specialized knowledge and skills needed in the Health Care professions
- Describe the differences in licensing, certification and registration in Health Care professions
- List the responsibilities, work and work environments for a variety of HealthCare professions emotional health.

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your “Student Handbook” under “Policy on Student Rights,” the Section entitled “Student Discipline,” or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College’s website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim’s needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:

Ruth Gonzalez, Ph.D.	860-738-6315	Green Woods Hall Room 207
