Course Title: Western Civilization I
Course #: HIS 101

Course Description: 3 Credits
The class will be divided into two parts. The first section will encompass the Ancient World. Topics for discussion will include the Greeks and the Romans. The second section of this course will address the rise of the West's major monotheistic religions (Judaism, Christianity, and Islam) and the Middle Ages. In our study of these periods, we will address both courtly and common life. We will also discuss the growth of such powerful nation states as France, England, and the Holy Roman Empire.

Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff. Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim’s needs. SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:

- Ruth Gonzalez, Ph.D. 860-738-6315 Green Woods Hall Room 207
- Susan Berg 860-738-6342 Green Woods Hall Room 223
