A YEAR OF
CHANGES

*sit by my side
come as close as the air
share in a memory of gray
and wander in my words
dream about the pictures that i play,
of changes*

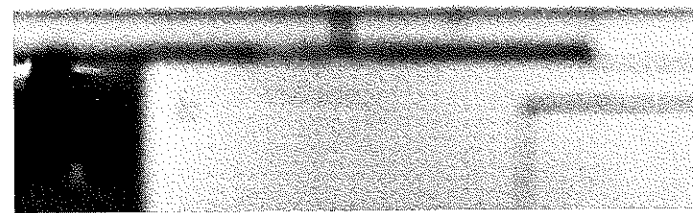

*green leaves of
summer turn red
in the fall
to brown and to
yellow, they fade
and then they have to die
trapped within
the circle time
parade, of changes*

*withered leaves
clinging to stiffened branches suddenly flung to the earth by winters cruel breath and buried beneath the snows,
of change*

scenes of my young years were warm in my mind
visions of shadows
that shine

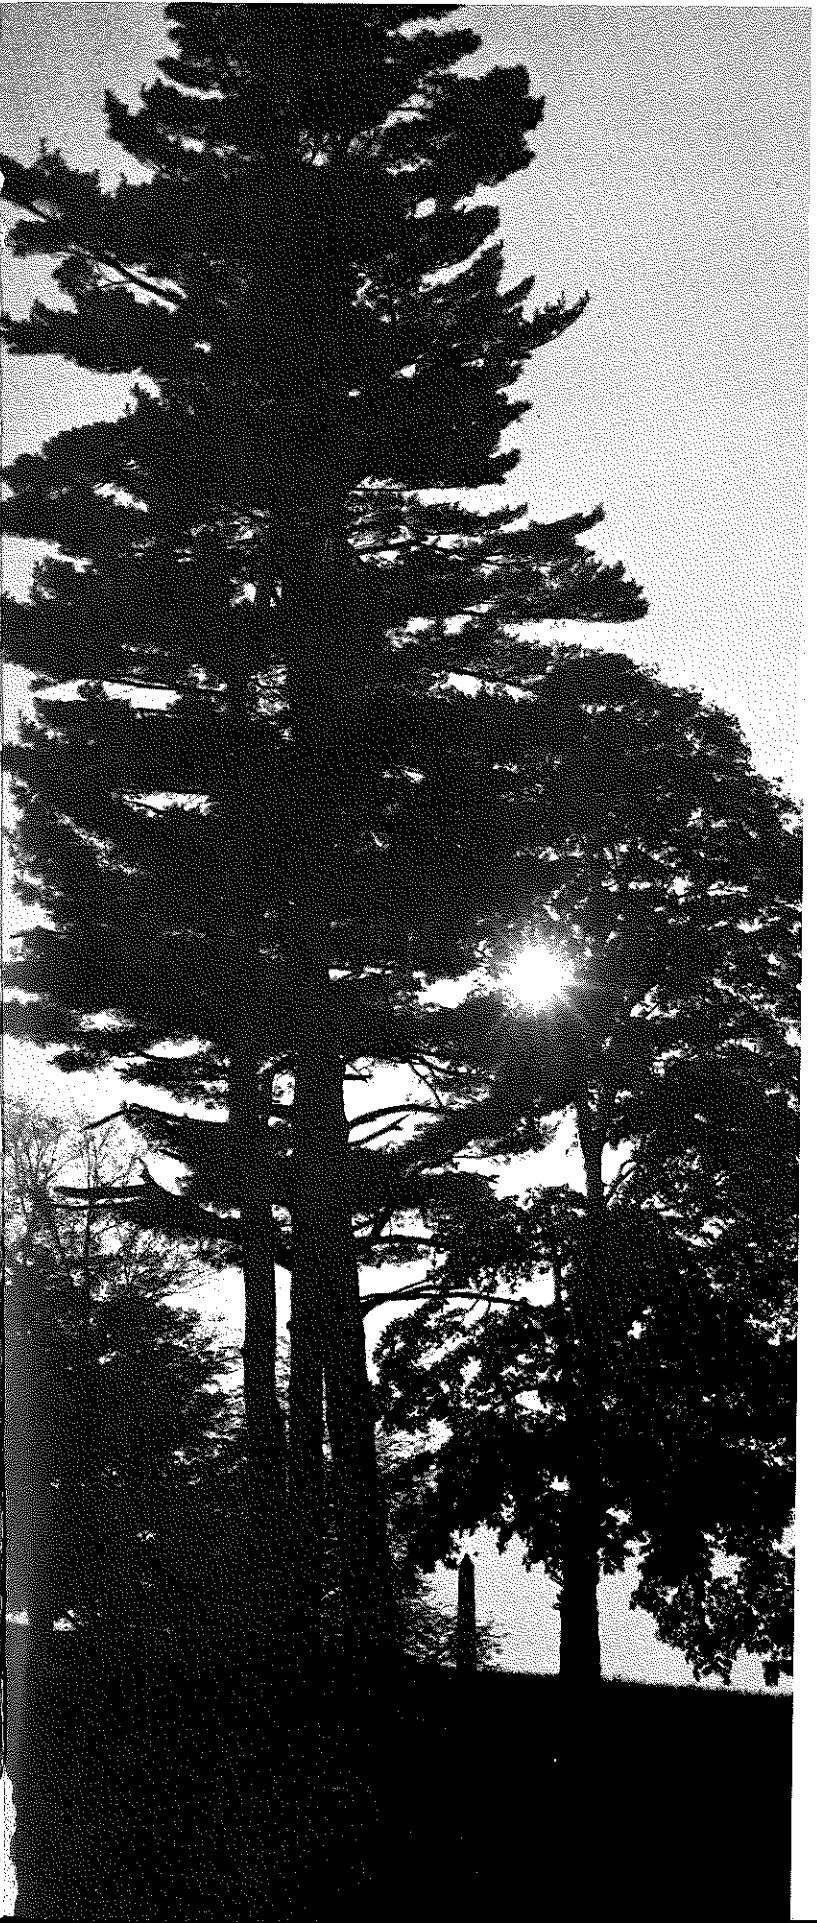

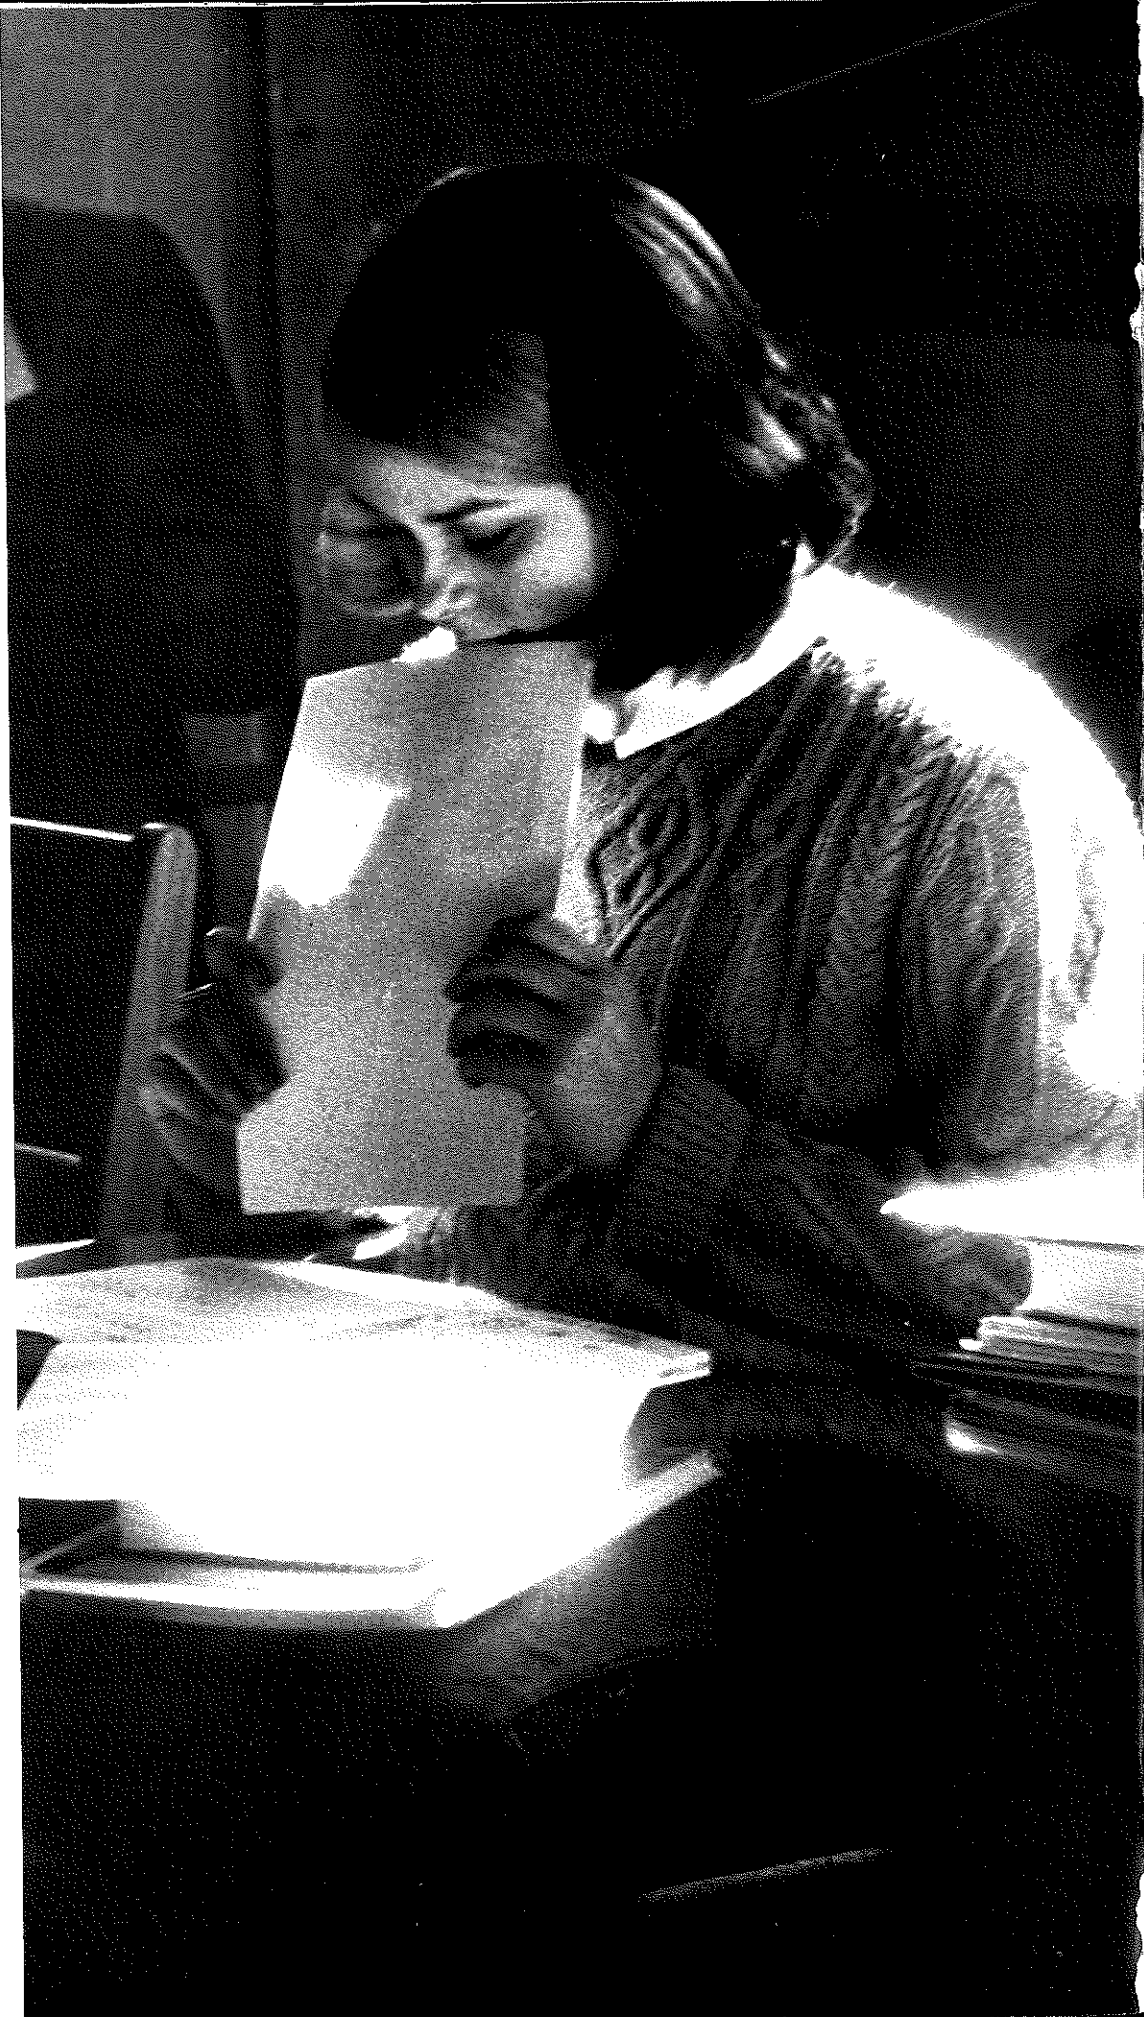

A high-contrast black and white photograph of a trellis structure. The trellis is composed of numerous dark, thick lines forming a grid-like pattern against a stark white background. A bird is perched on one of the horizontal bars of the trellis, its silhouette clearly defined. The bird is facing left. The overall composition is abstract and geometric, focusing on the interplay of light and shadow.

*till one day i returned and found they were the victims of the vines,
of changes*

*the world spinning madly, adrift in the dark
swings through a hallow of haze a race around the stars
a journey through the universe of haze, of changes*

*moments of magic
will glow in the night
all fears of the forest
are gone
but when the morning
breaks
they're swept away
by golden drops of dawn,
of changes*

*memories of a
sullen groundhog
asleep in a dark,
deep burrow
neither feeling
nor seeing*

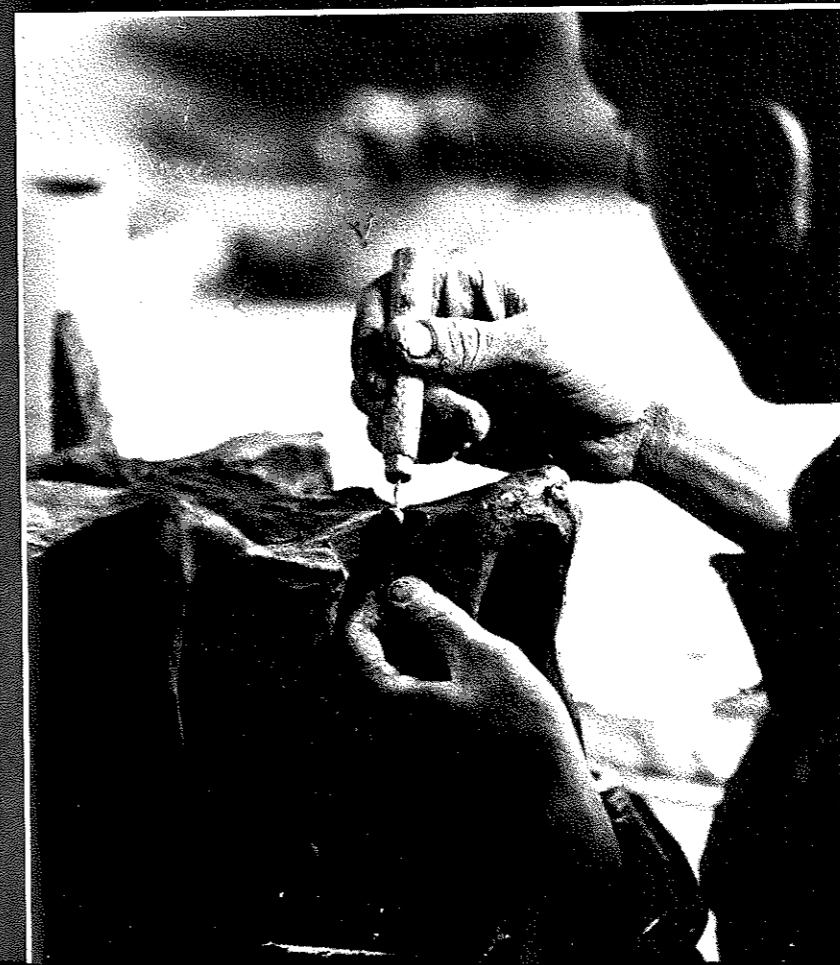

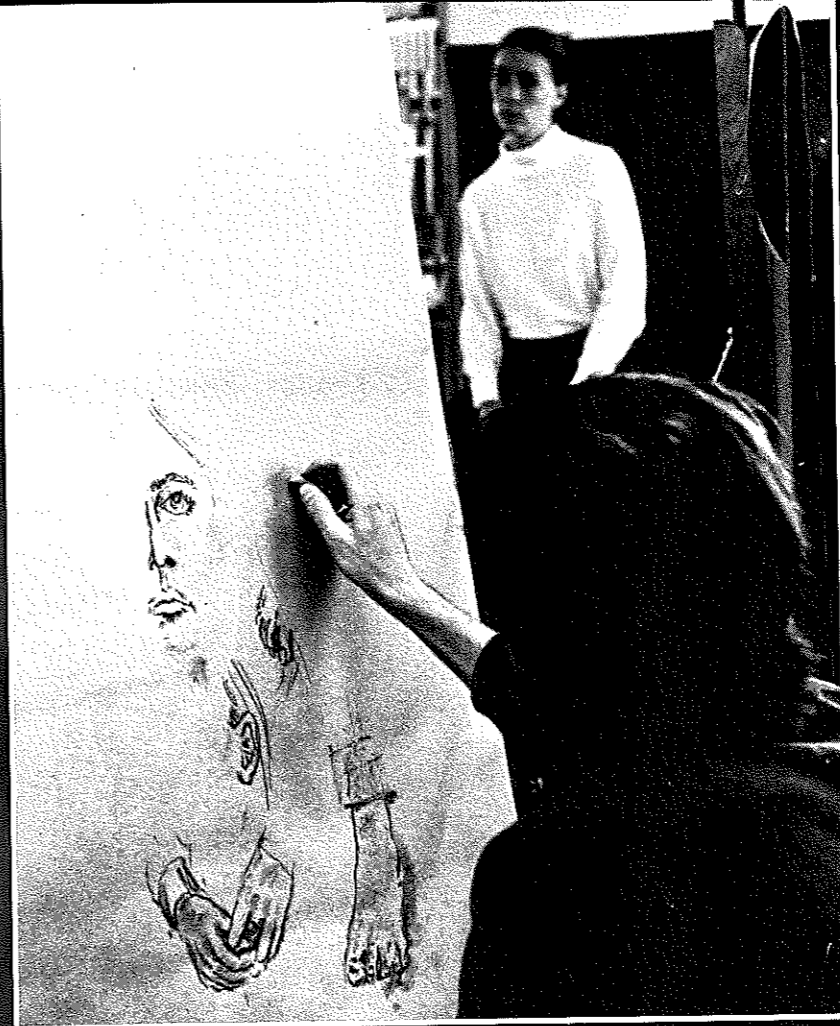

*until prodded awake
by the vibrations of newly erupting life, of changes* *with the caution of self-preservation he pokes his eyes

into the light of day*

only to frightfully see the fleeting shadow
of his self,
and return to the
self-styled warmth
of his lair, of changes

*like petals in the wind, we're puppets to the
silver strings of souls,
of changes*

dark and light fall on my soul a paradox of images — contorted yet serene

searching
researching
for
a
way

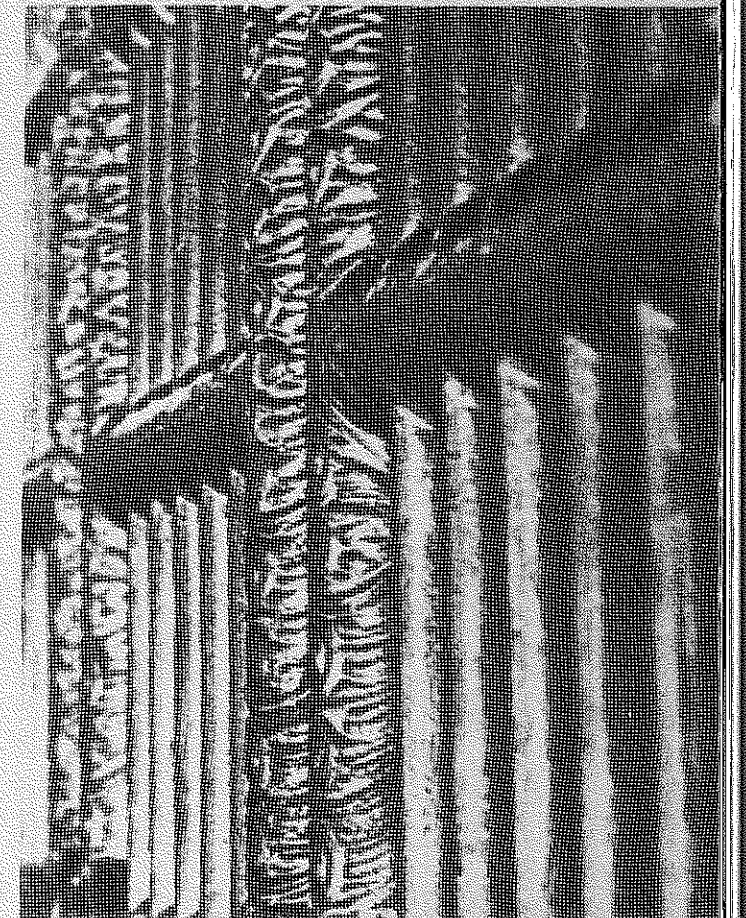

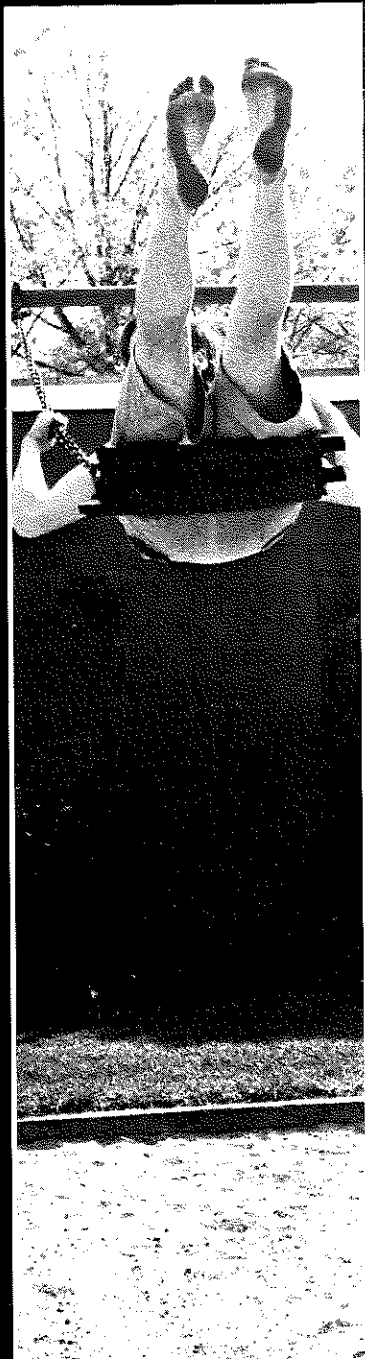

*cold smooth marble
and warm supple flesh
paths to somewhere*

to what patterns

to
what
images

to what . . . of changes *your tears will be trembling now we're somewhere else

one last cup of wine
we will pour
and i'll kiss you –
one more time
and leave you on the
rolling river shore,
of changes*

"It behooves those of us who administer to provide a climate for teaching and for learning. The bricks, the boards, the paper, the specimens, the tools, are — believe it or not — easy to provide. Their sole requirement is money."

The difficult task is to assemble a faculty and a staff which will so meld, so mesh, and so move that the atmosphere of the College will, in spite of competition and conflict, or because of competition and conflict, change all of us — students and faculty — for a world which demands that we do more than adapt — do more than cope with life's problems and solutions."

*Regina M. Duffy, President Northwestern Connecticut
Community College
May 18, 1969*

*so sit by my side
of changes*

FACES OF CHANGE

The image is a high-contrast, black and white graphic design. It features the text "FACES OF CHANGE" in large, bold, white, sans-serif capital letters. The letters are cut out, revealing silhouettes of people in various poses and activities. The background is solid black. The design is split vertically down the center by a gutter, suggesting it's a book cover or a spread in a magazine. The silhouettes include a person's profile, a person looking down, and a person sitting at a desk.
