*Yeah!
we got us a foul
environment, but this country suffers more
from MORAL POLLUTION -
NOT air pollution*

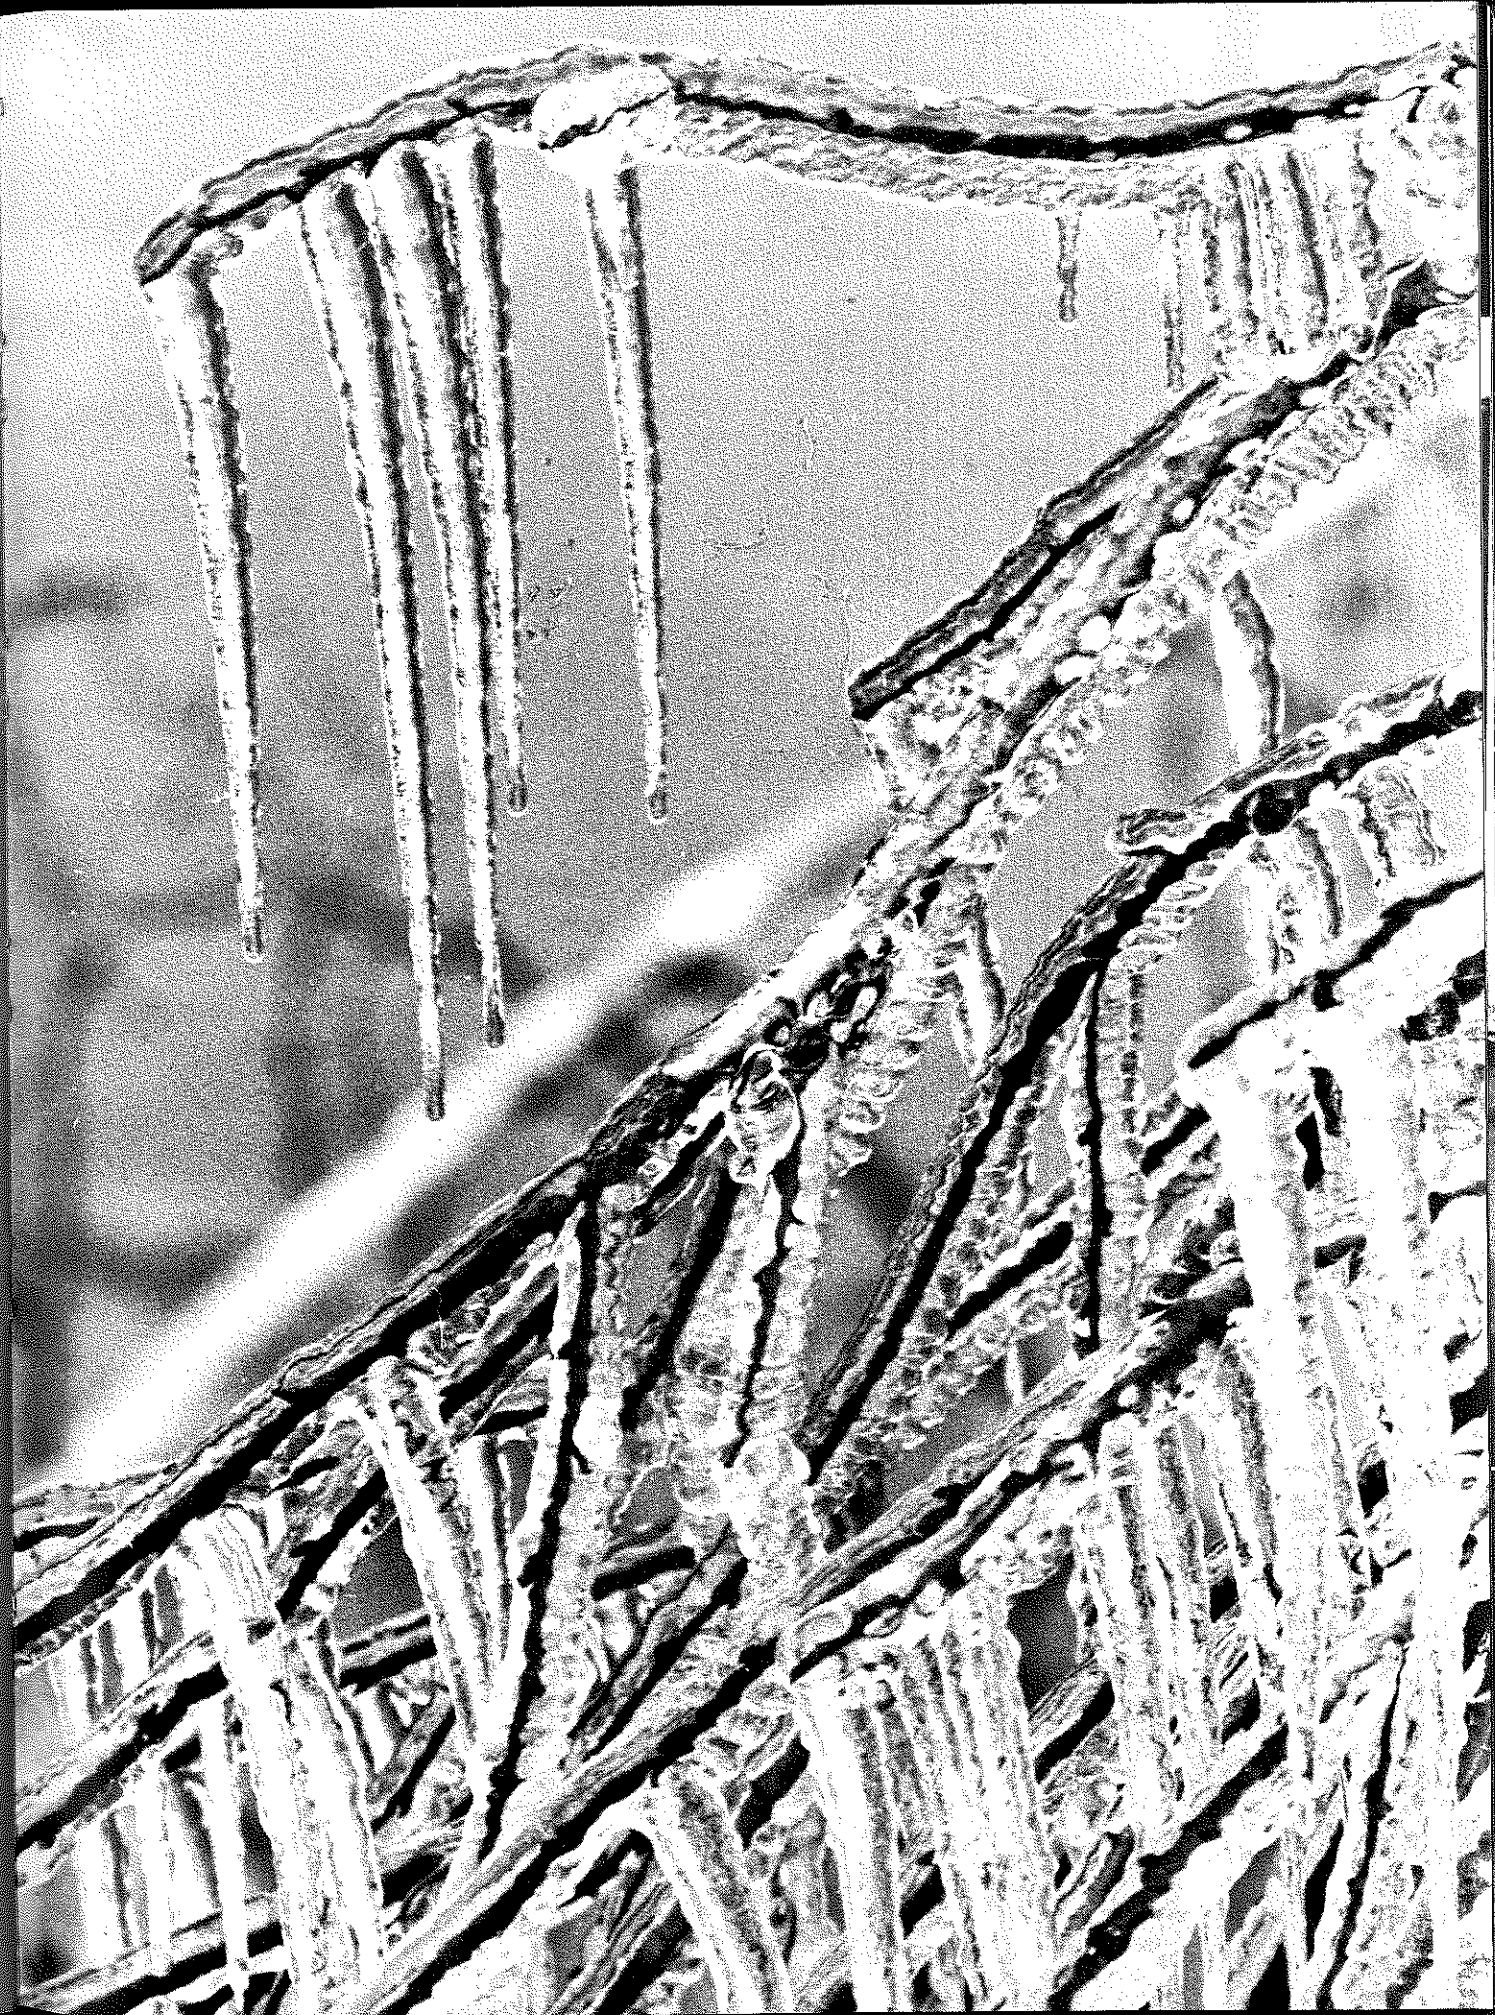

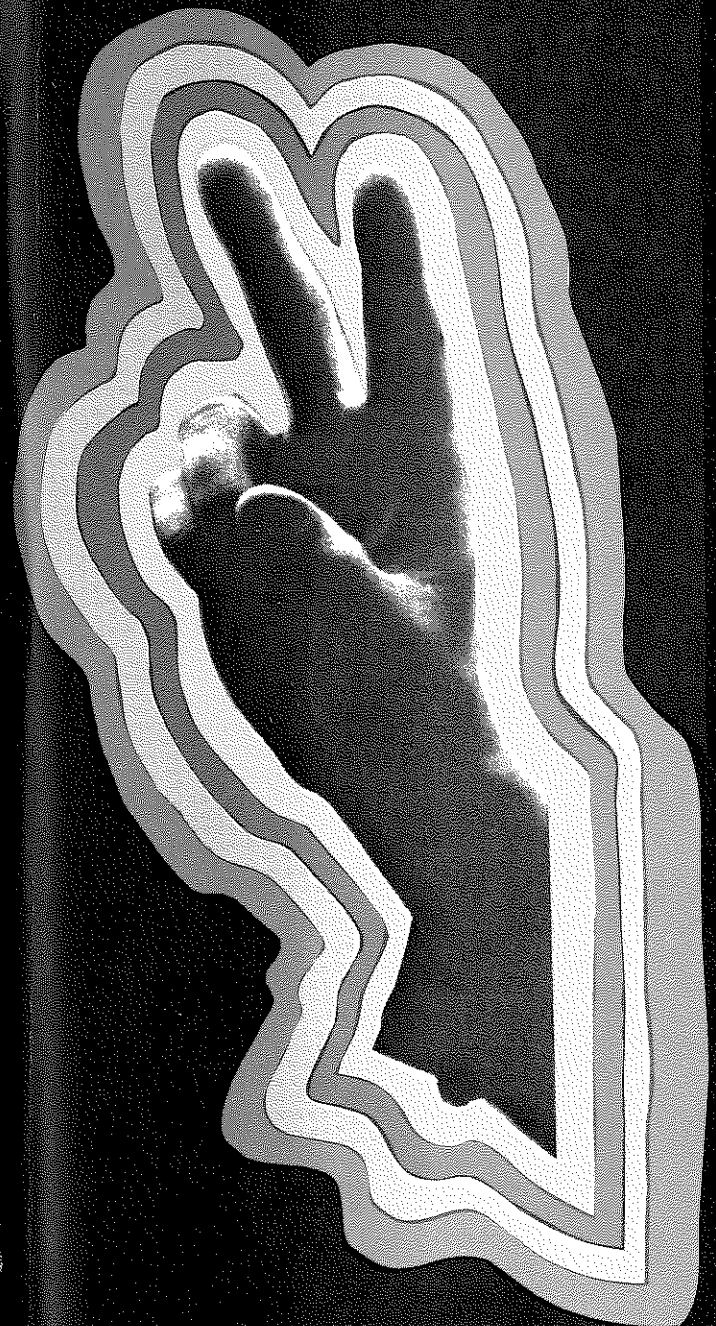

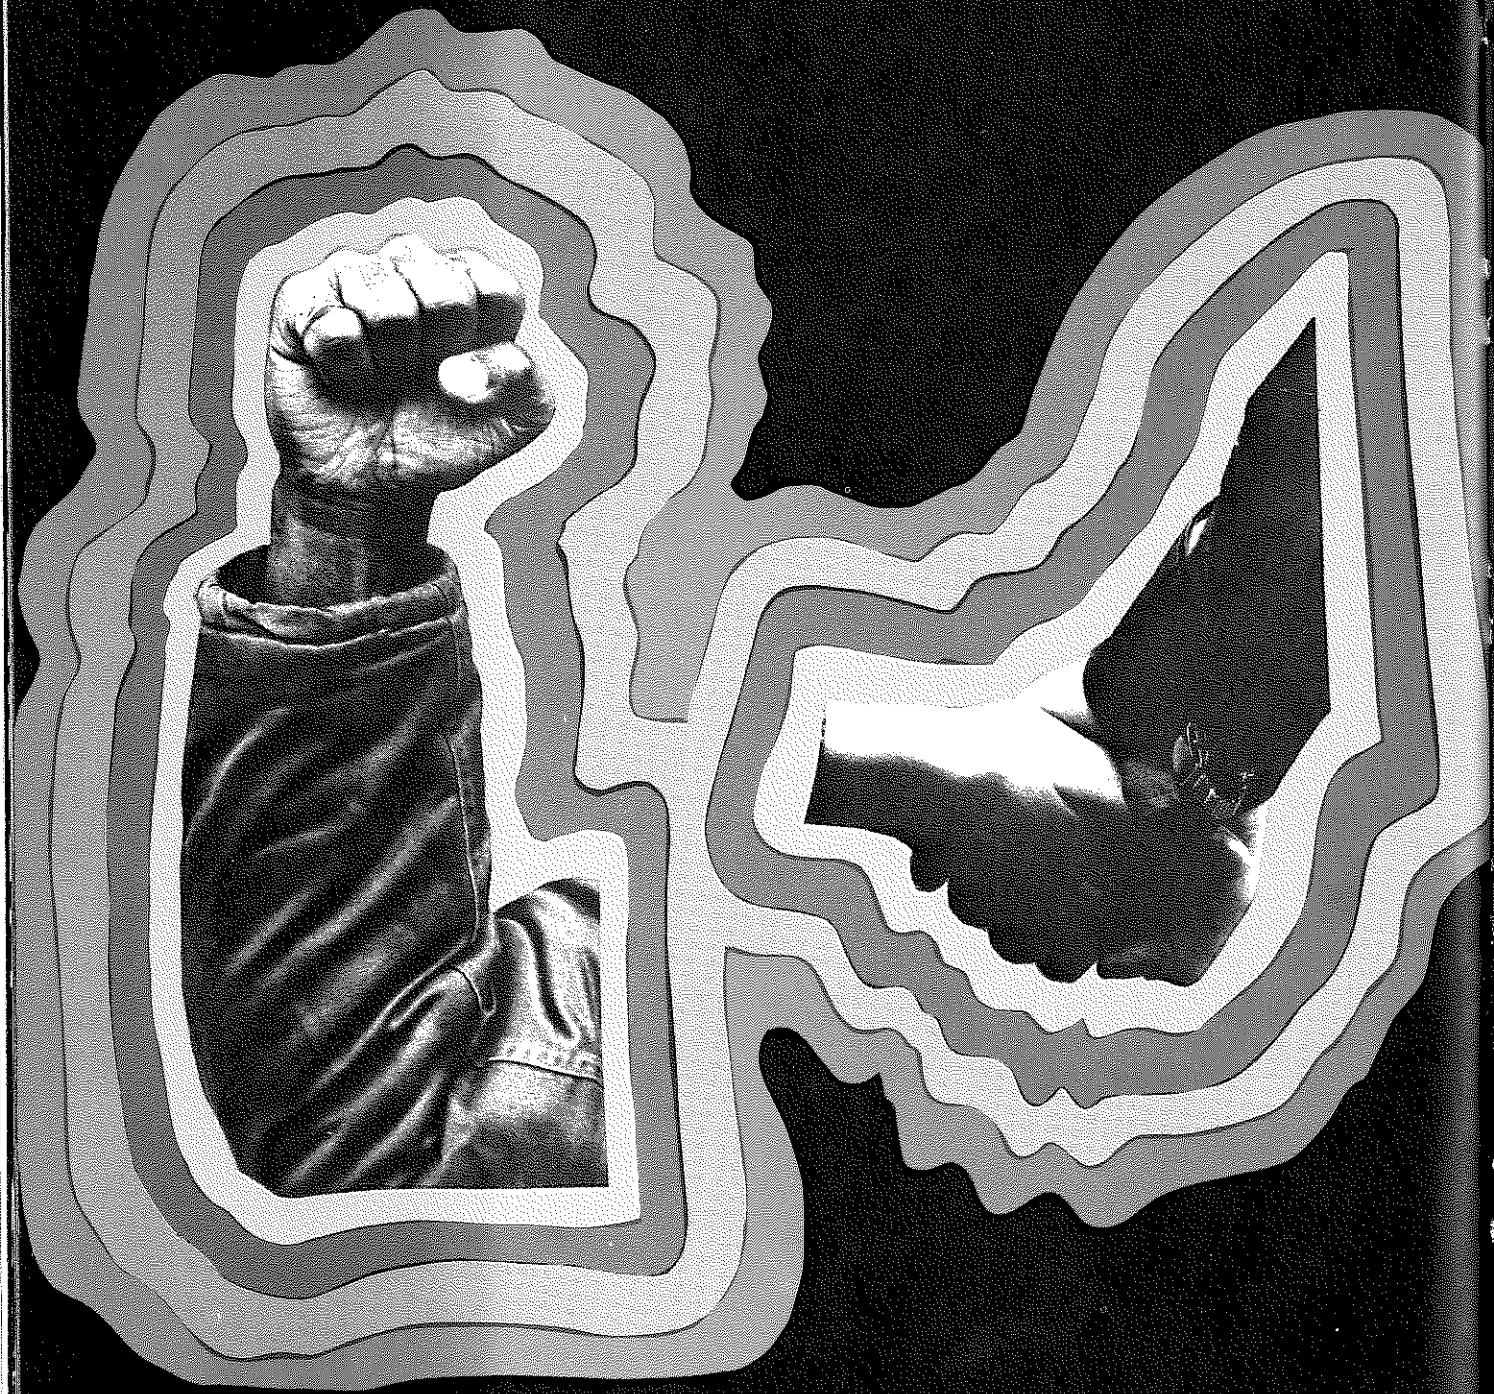

One man on Earth
with other men...
hands for functioning,
and minds to make them work, summoning energy to create

No two hands
creating anything
more meaningful
in the face of Nature
than any other two...

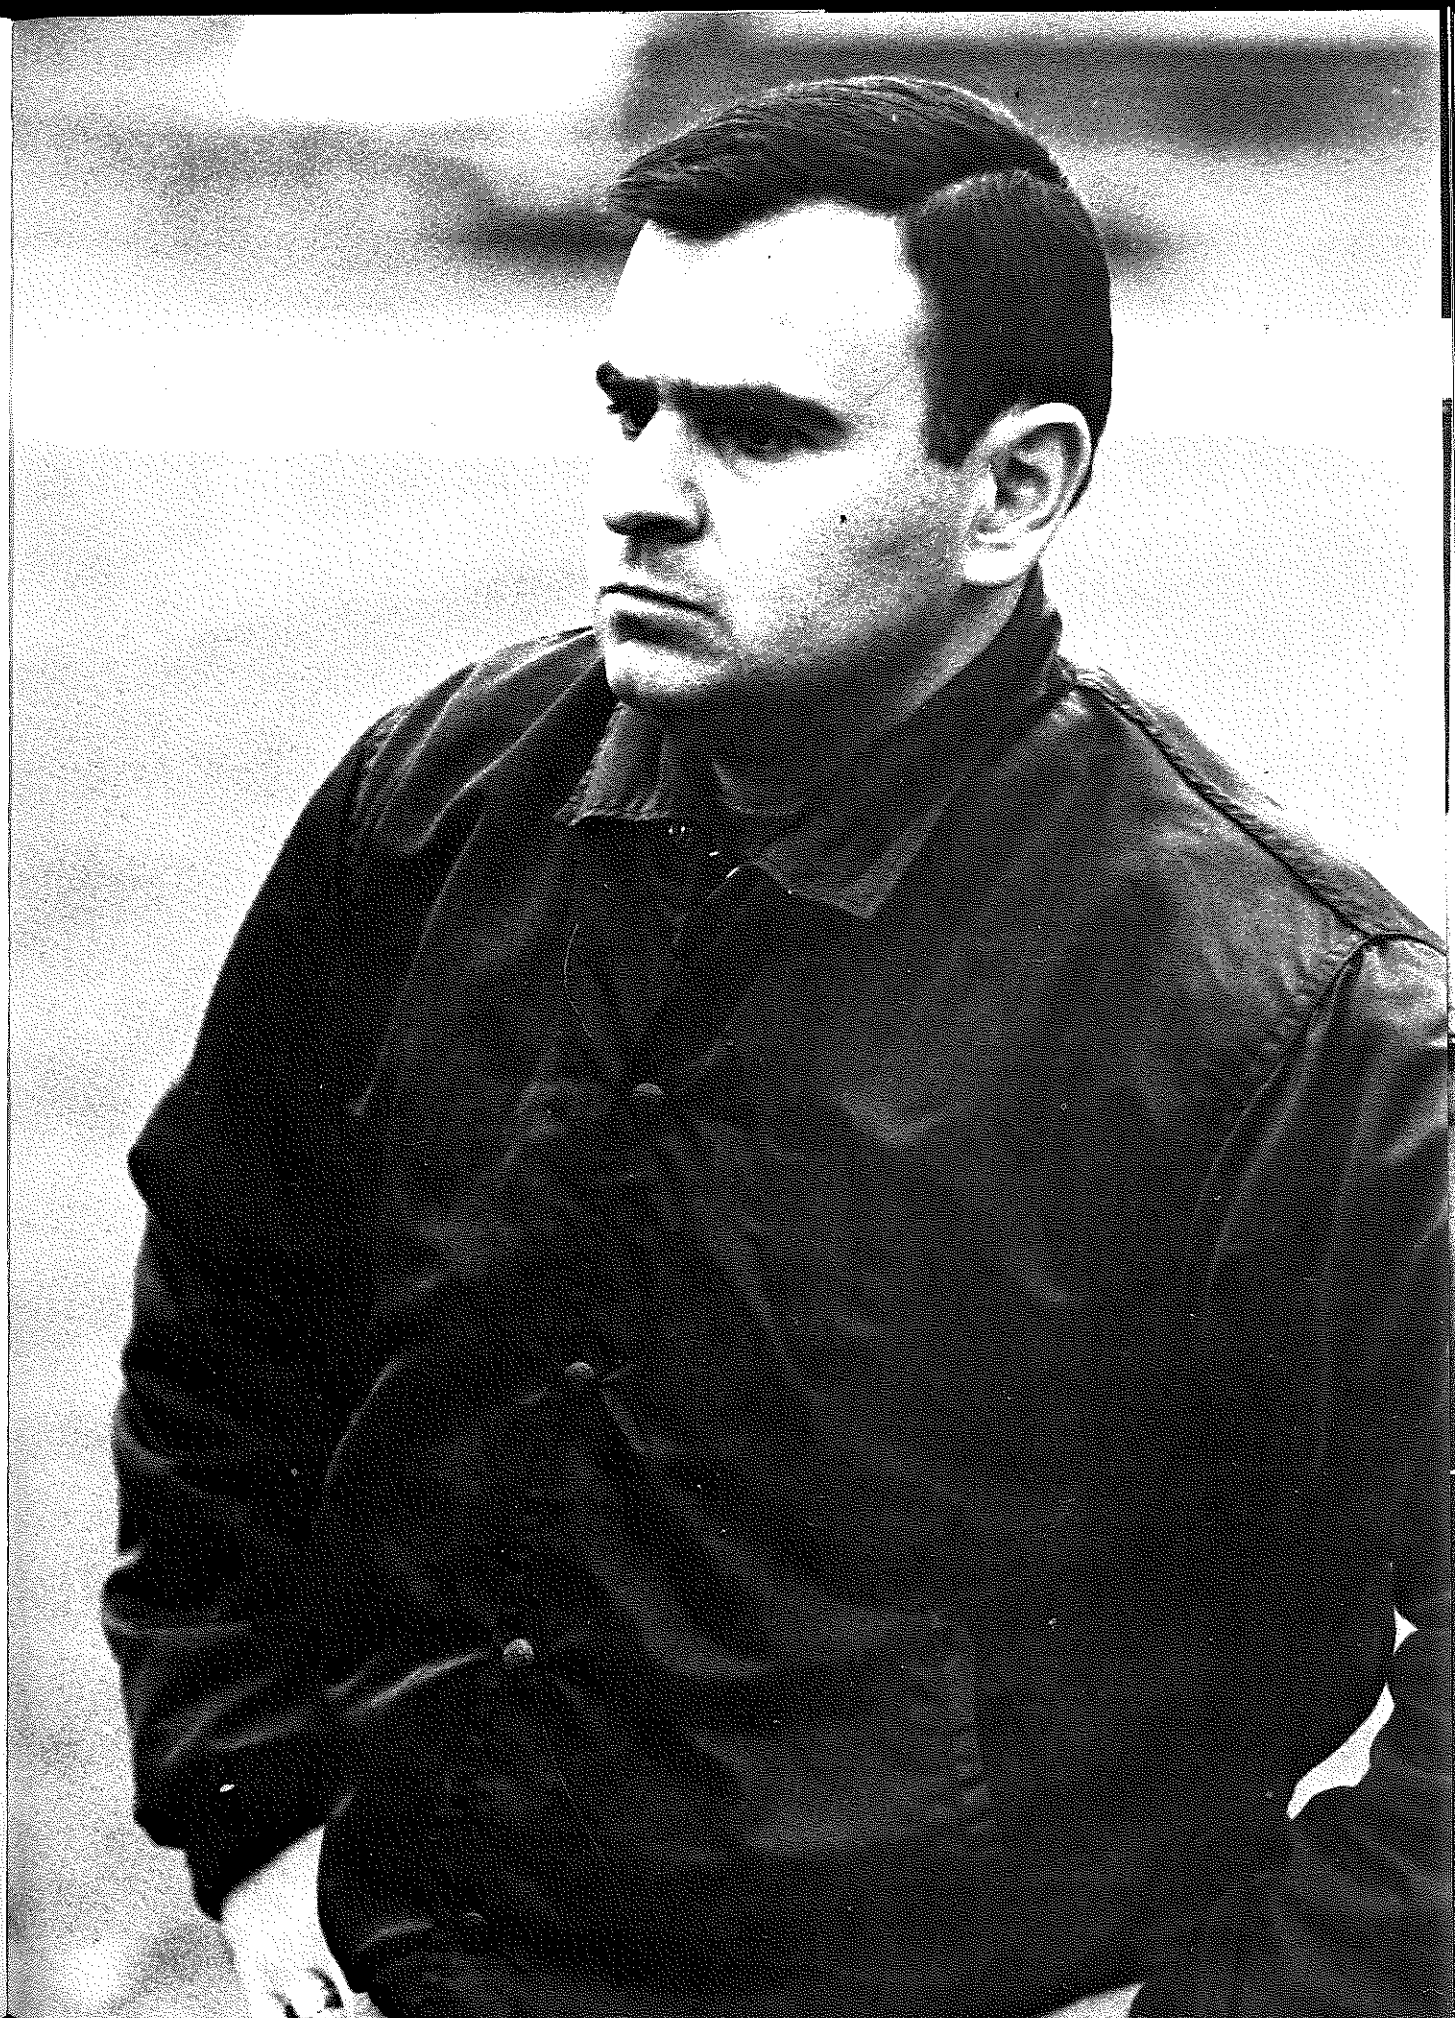

One mind,
two hands dealing
in circles real to that mind;
dealing with what is real,
Meaningful
to yourself
in turn
humanity...

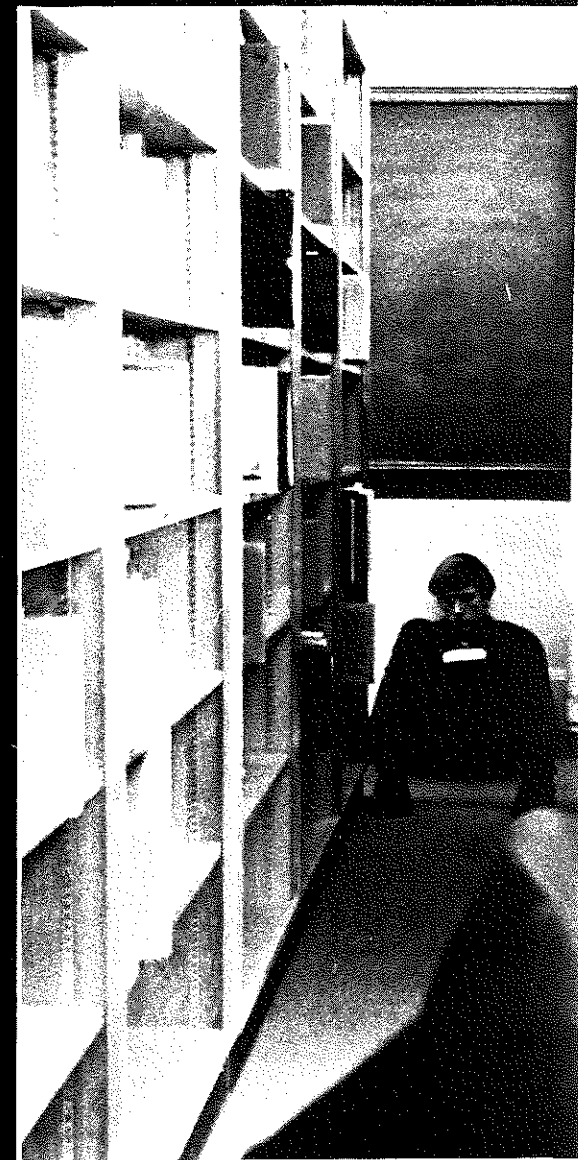

Sometimes fires
within yourself
sear and burn
the soul
and leave you tired
and aching

*Quivering in the dark
and crouching in the cold corners, frightened eyes staring in terror*

Reclining on cool euphoric pillows, touching warm flesh
feeling the close tenderness,
and sharing experience

Then at times —
the tick tock of clocks
in the empty rooms
in tune to the tapping
of restless fingers

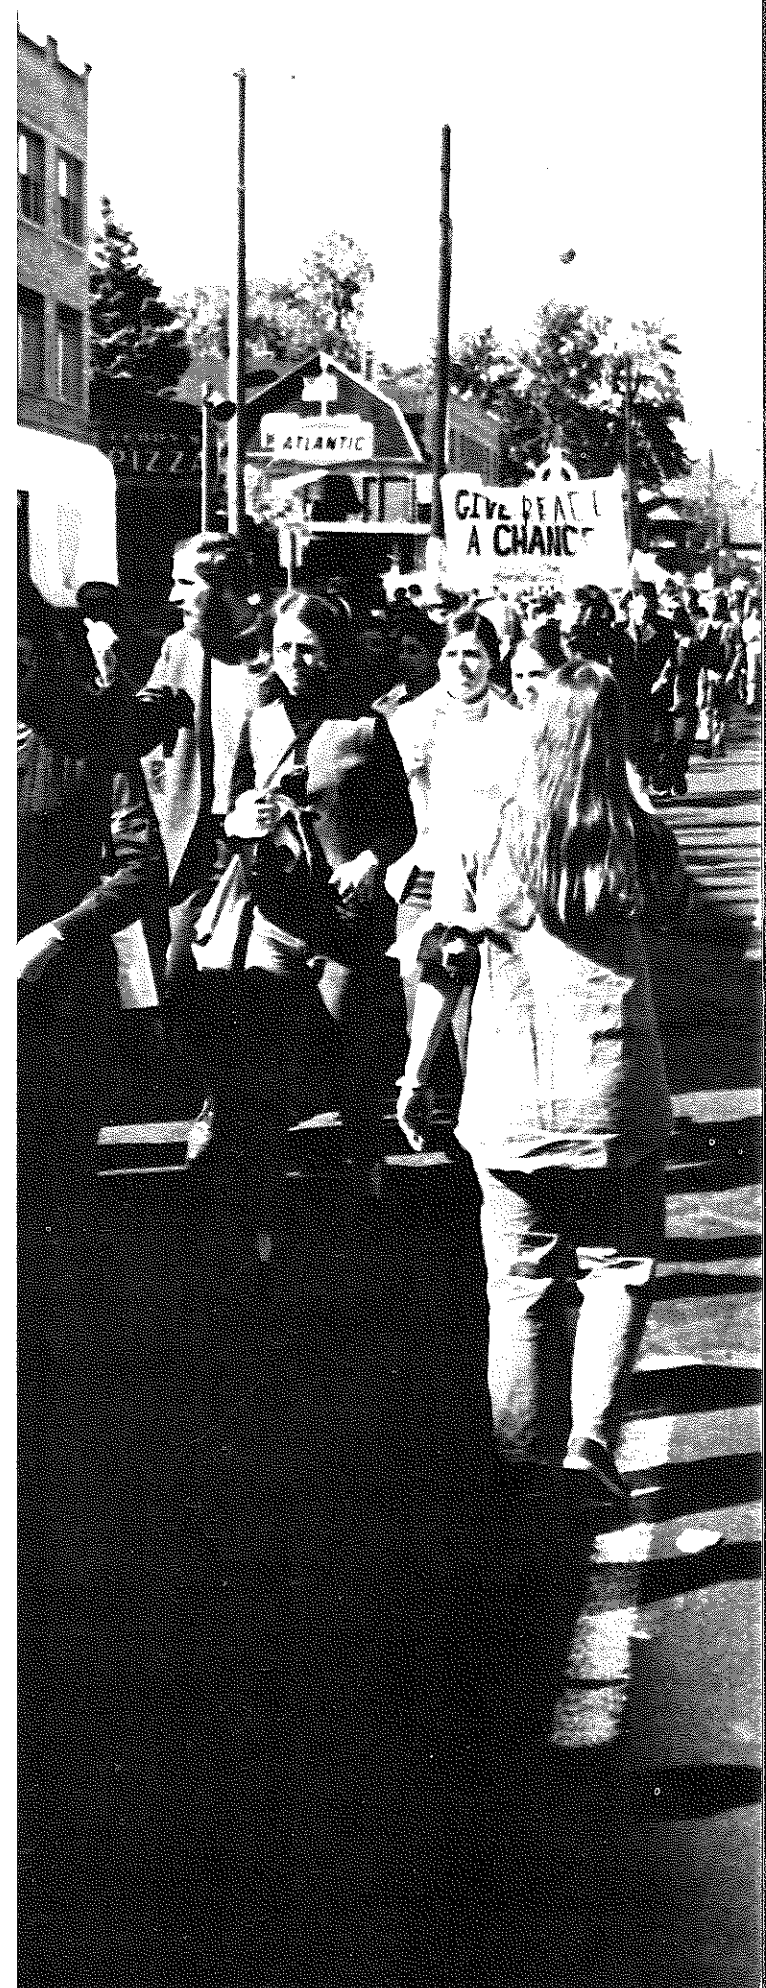

"THE VIETCONG?"

We are of the same race,
we have the same hair,
we speak the same
language. But they are without family
without country
without religion
And now we know they are without
humanity."

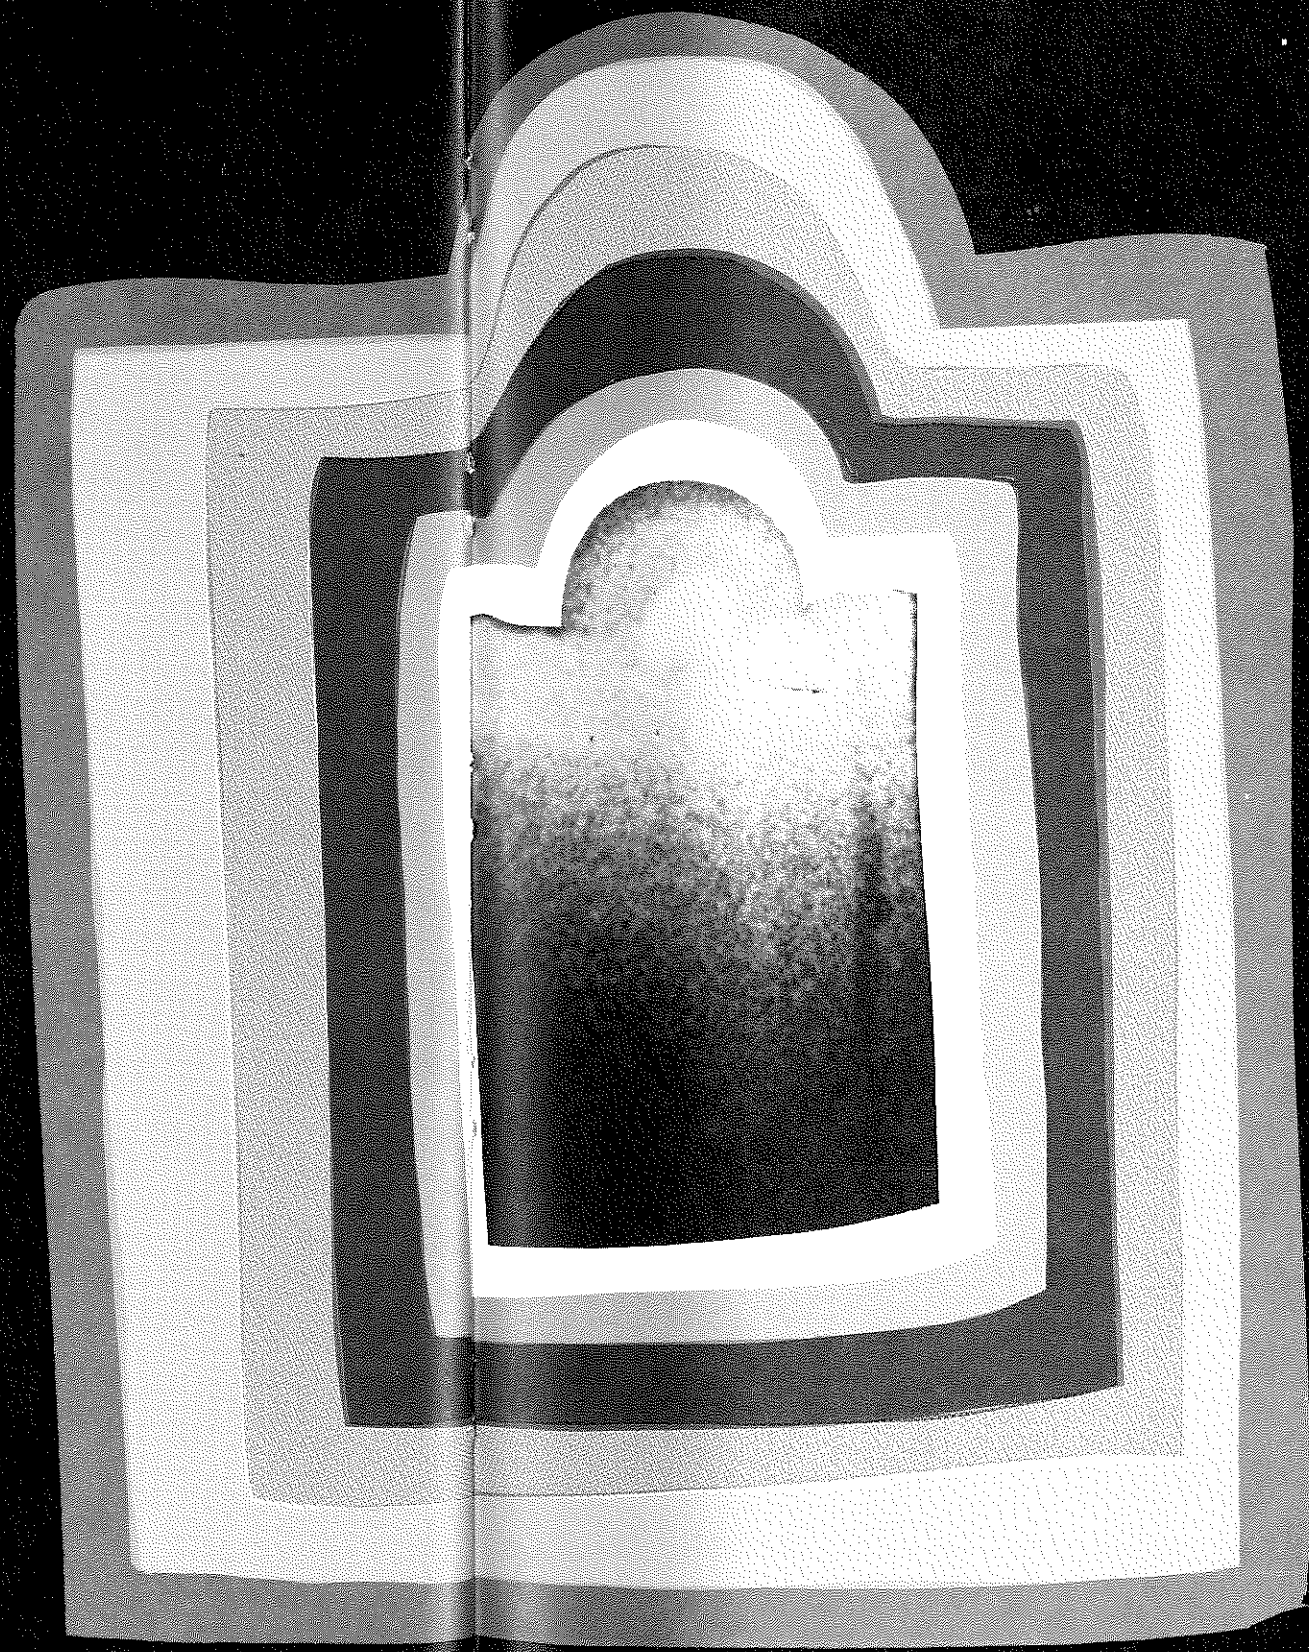

Mrs. Phan Thi
Dan. Nov. 12,
1969. Hue,
S. Vietnam.

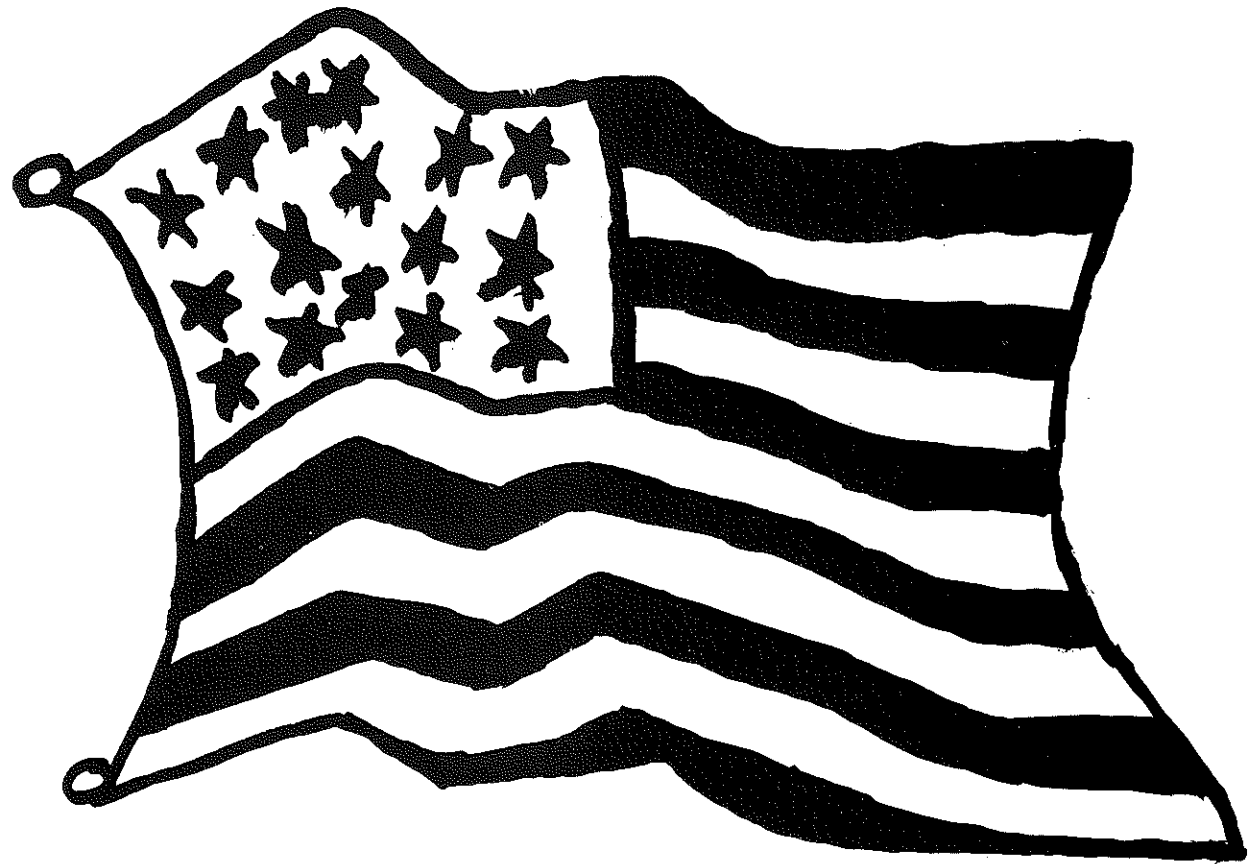

Waiting for...

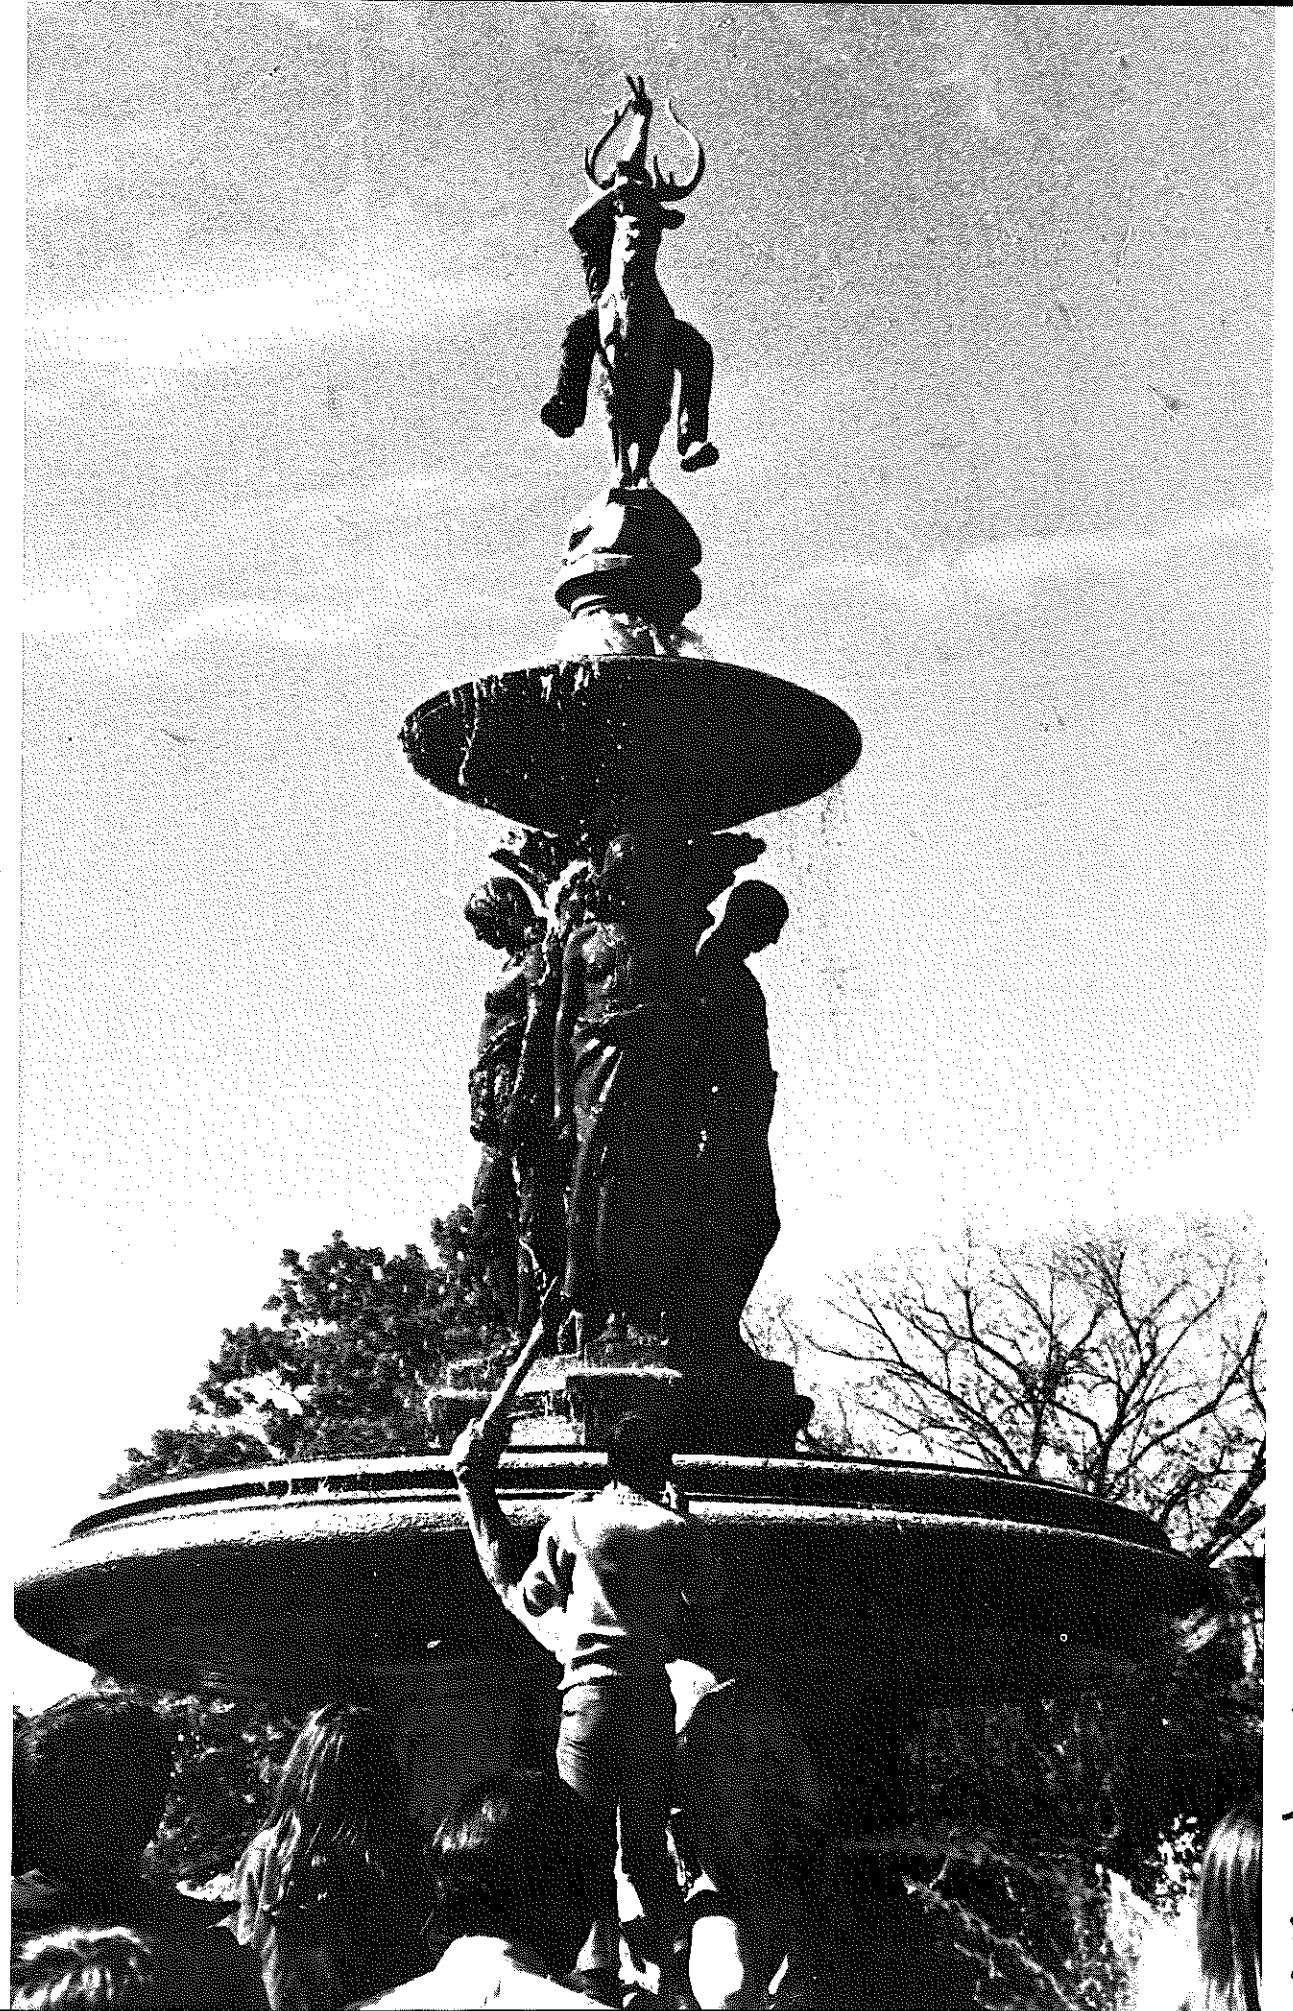

The spark —
the dark —

... AMERICA ...

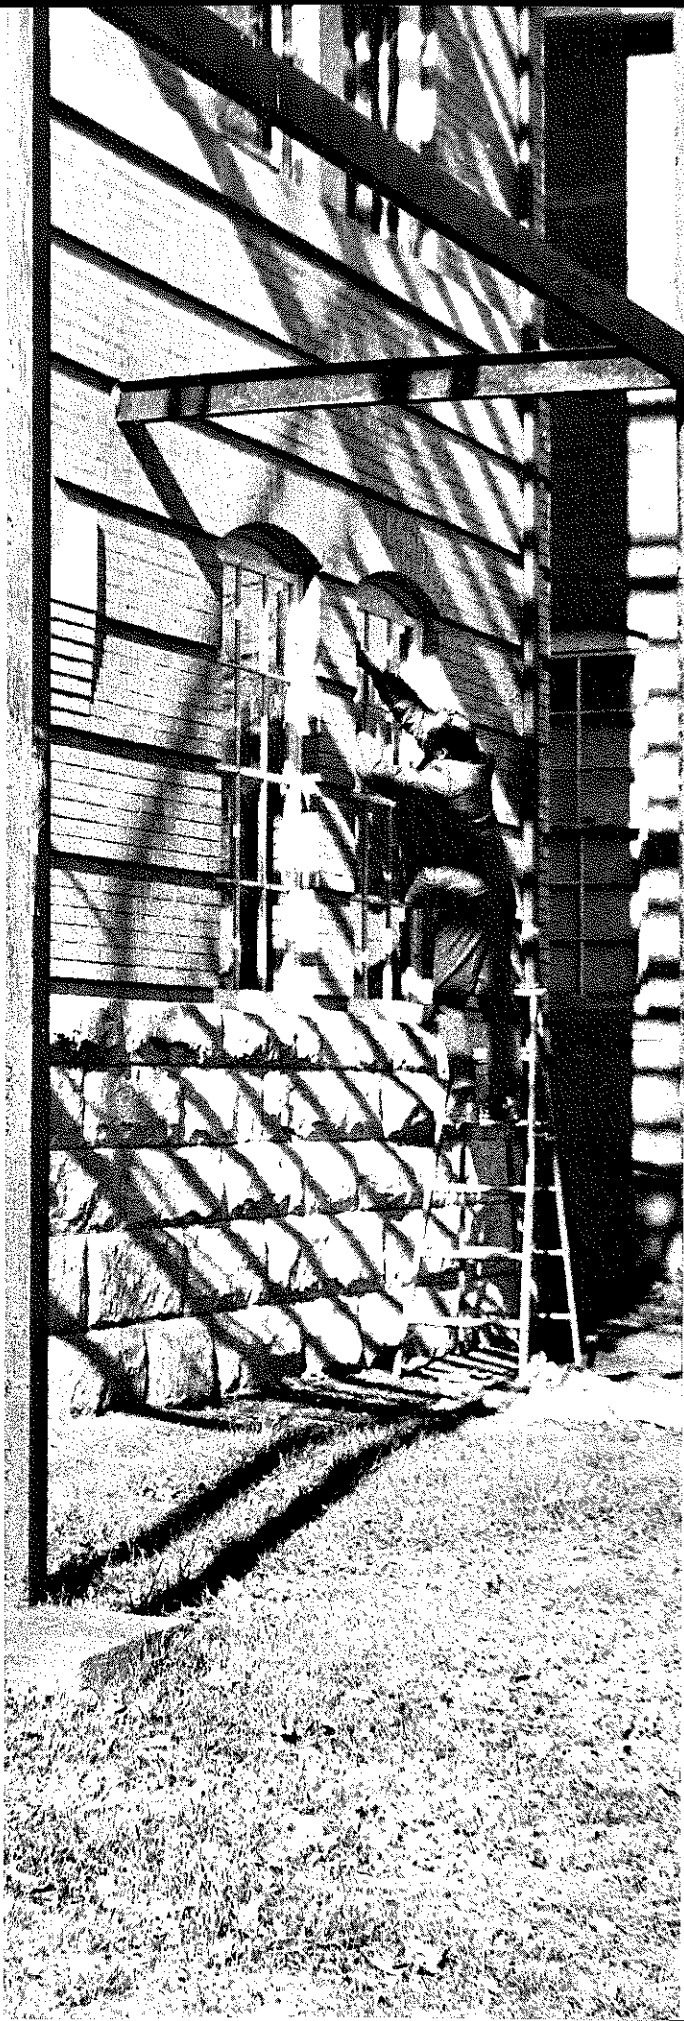

LOVE IT
 OR
LEAVE IT!

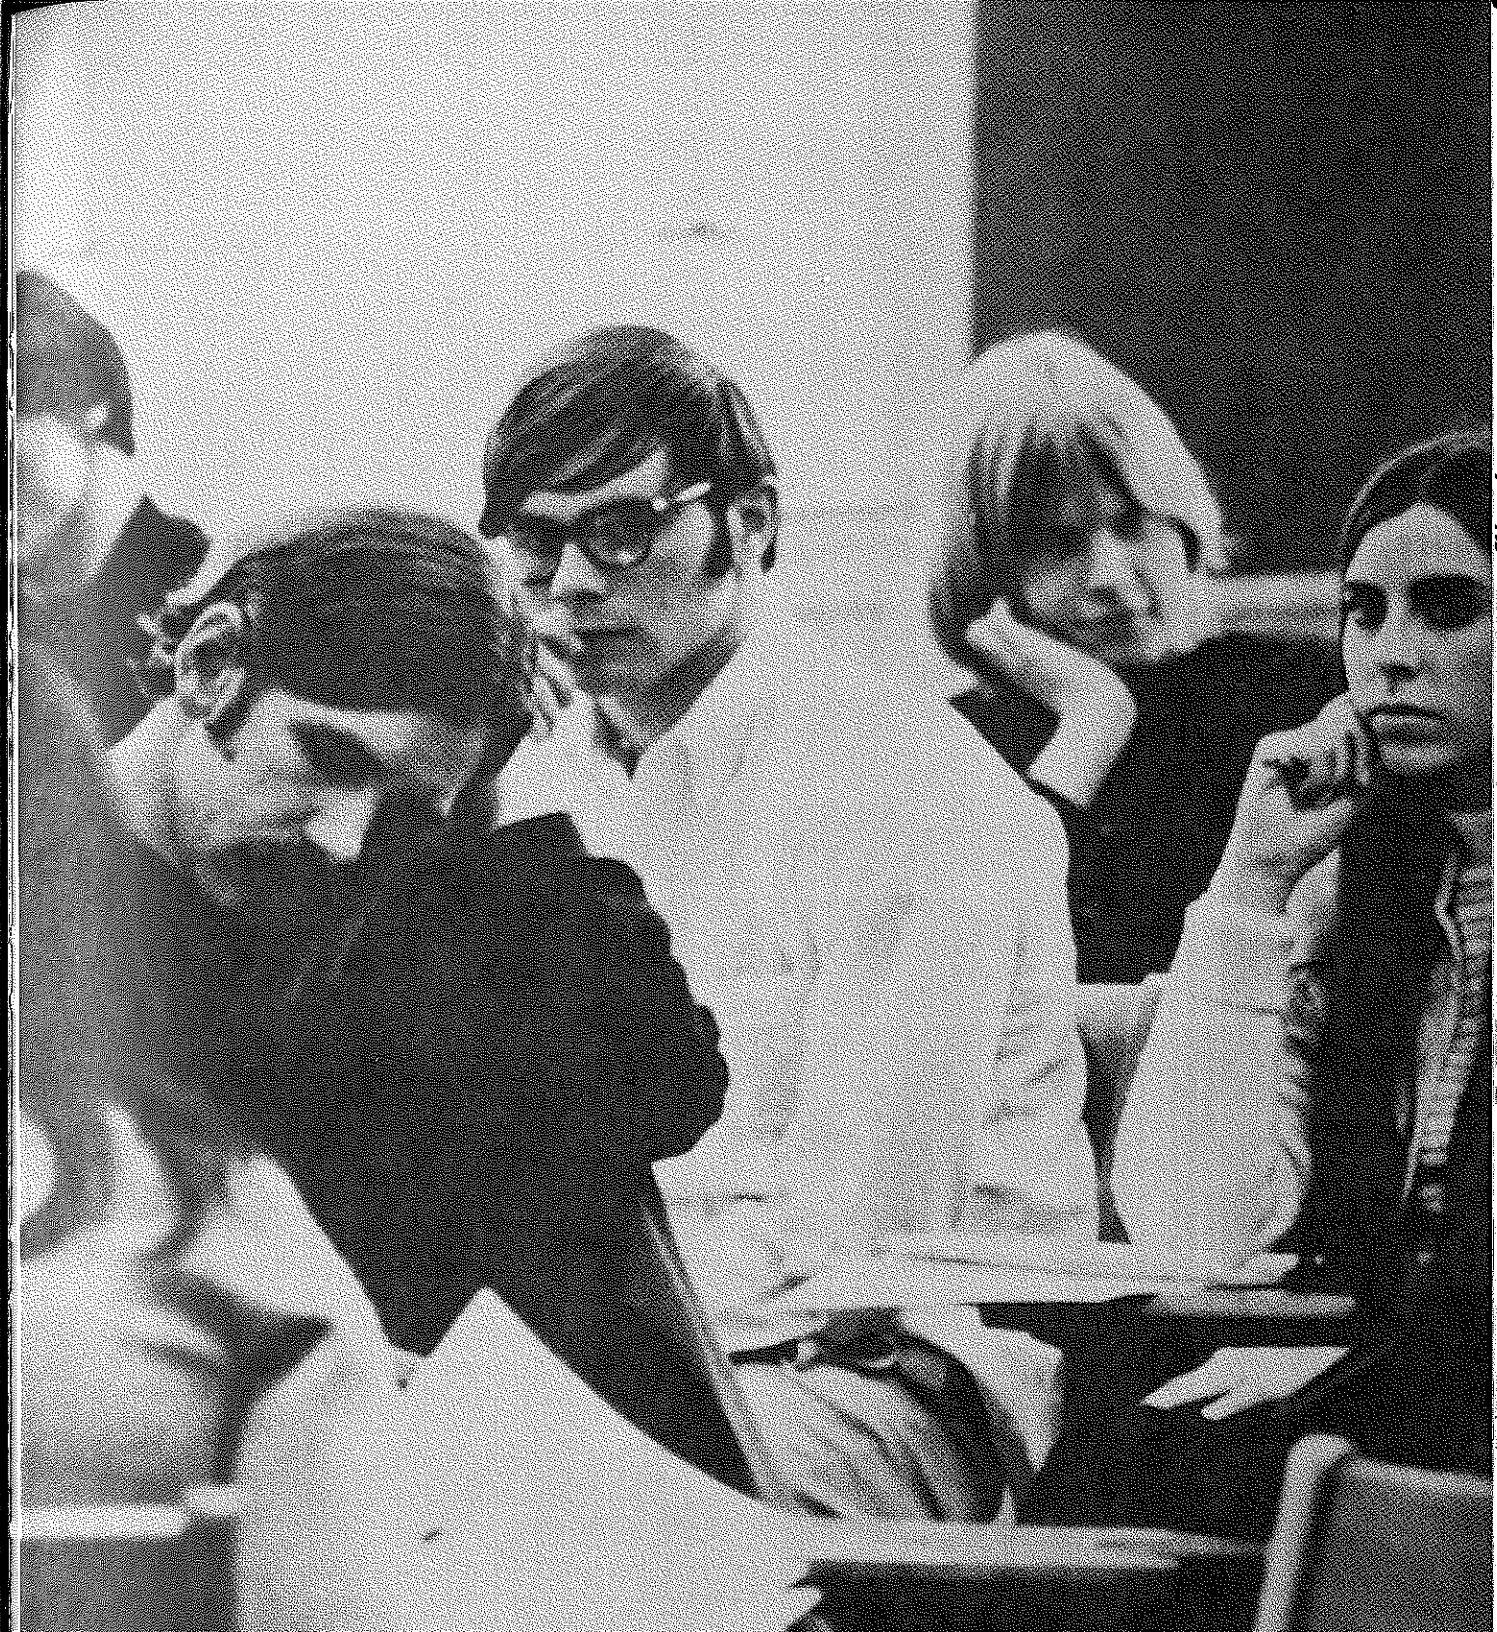

The touch.

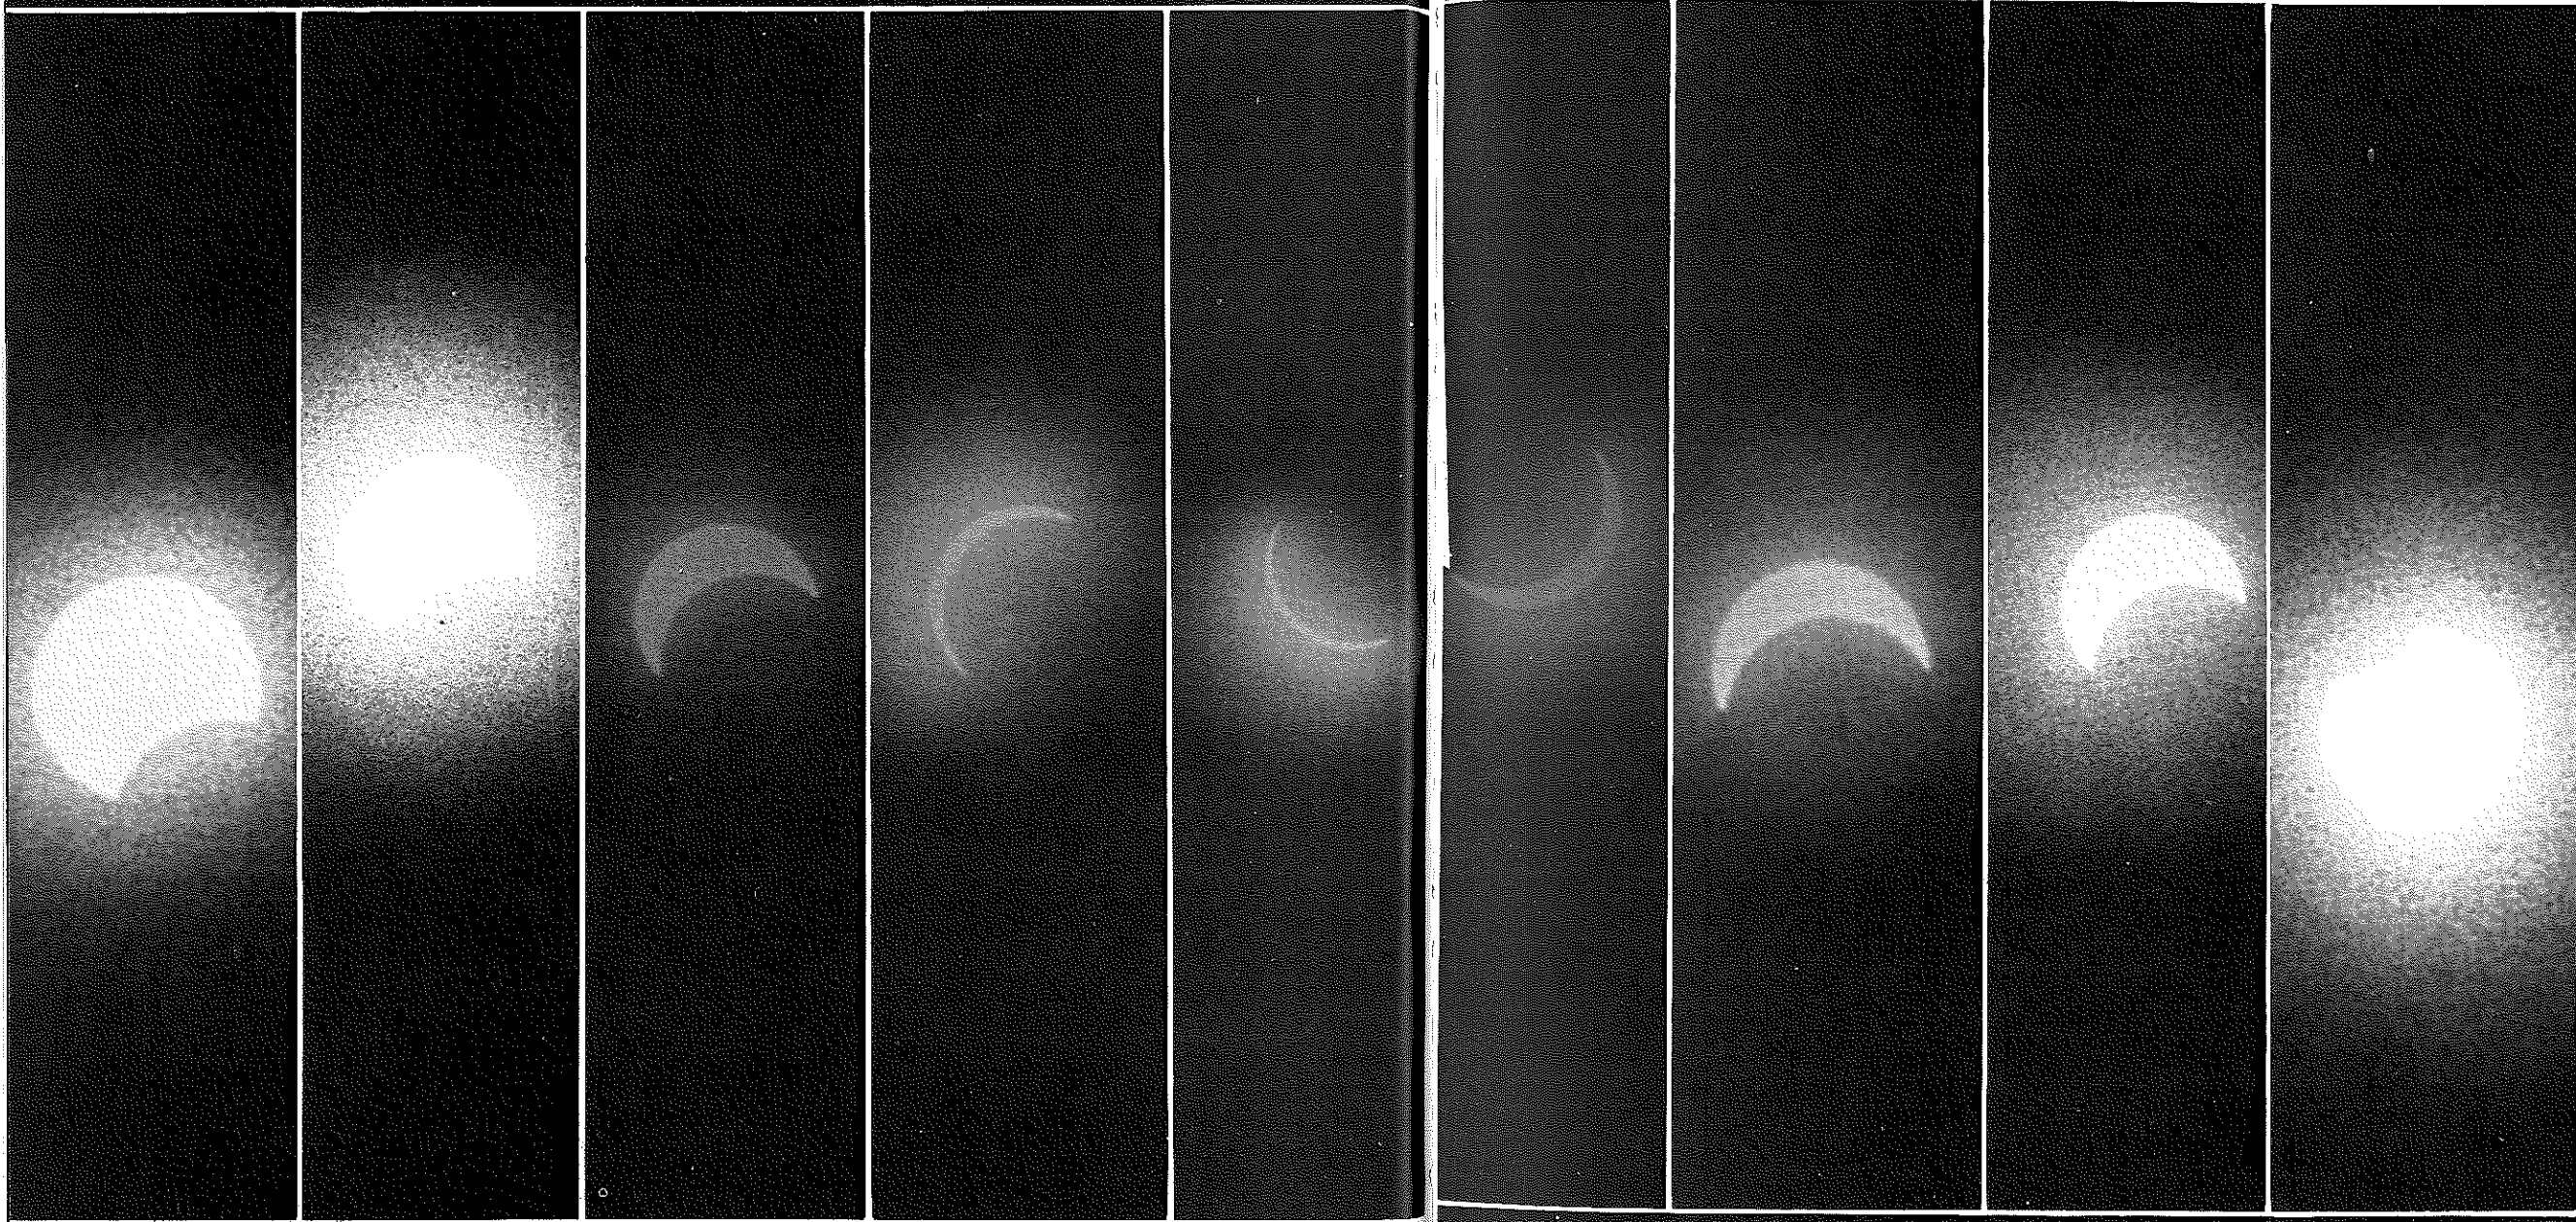

Patently passing time,
looking at things past,
afraid of venturing farther
yet
waiting for...

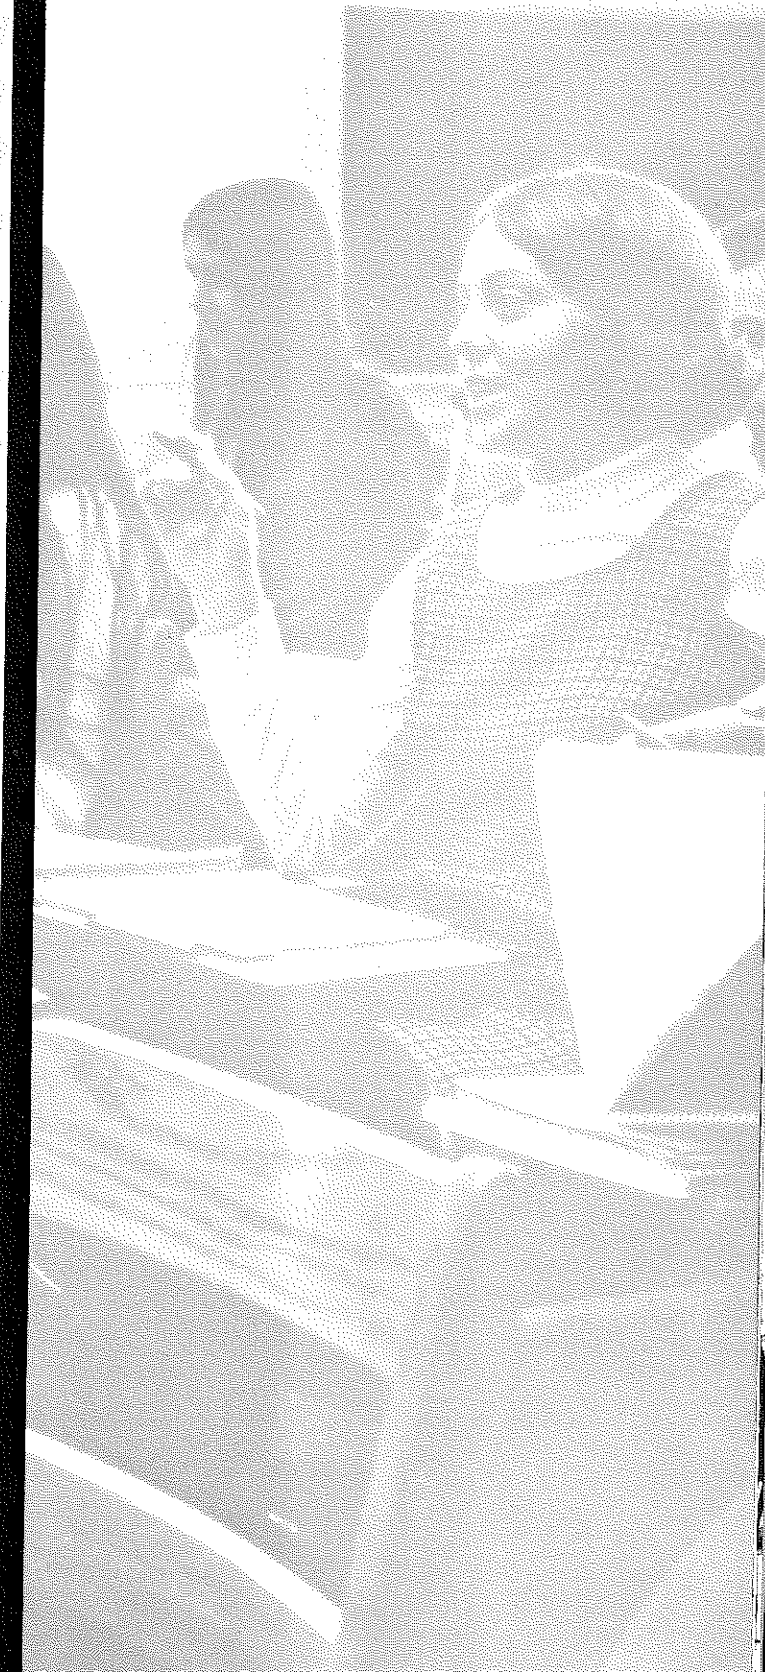

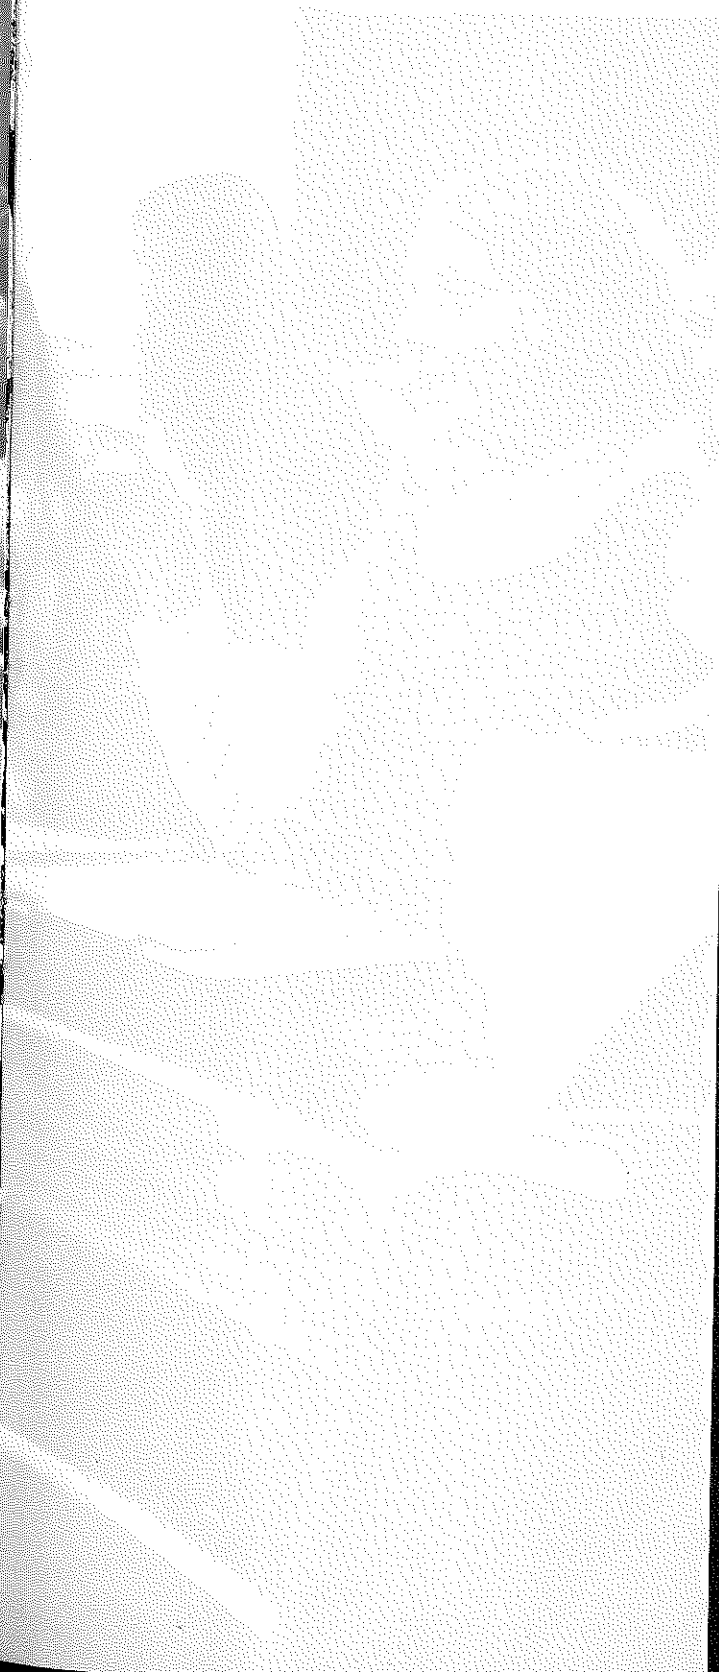

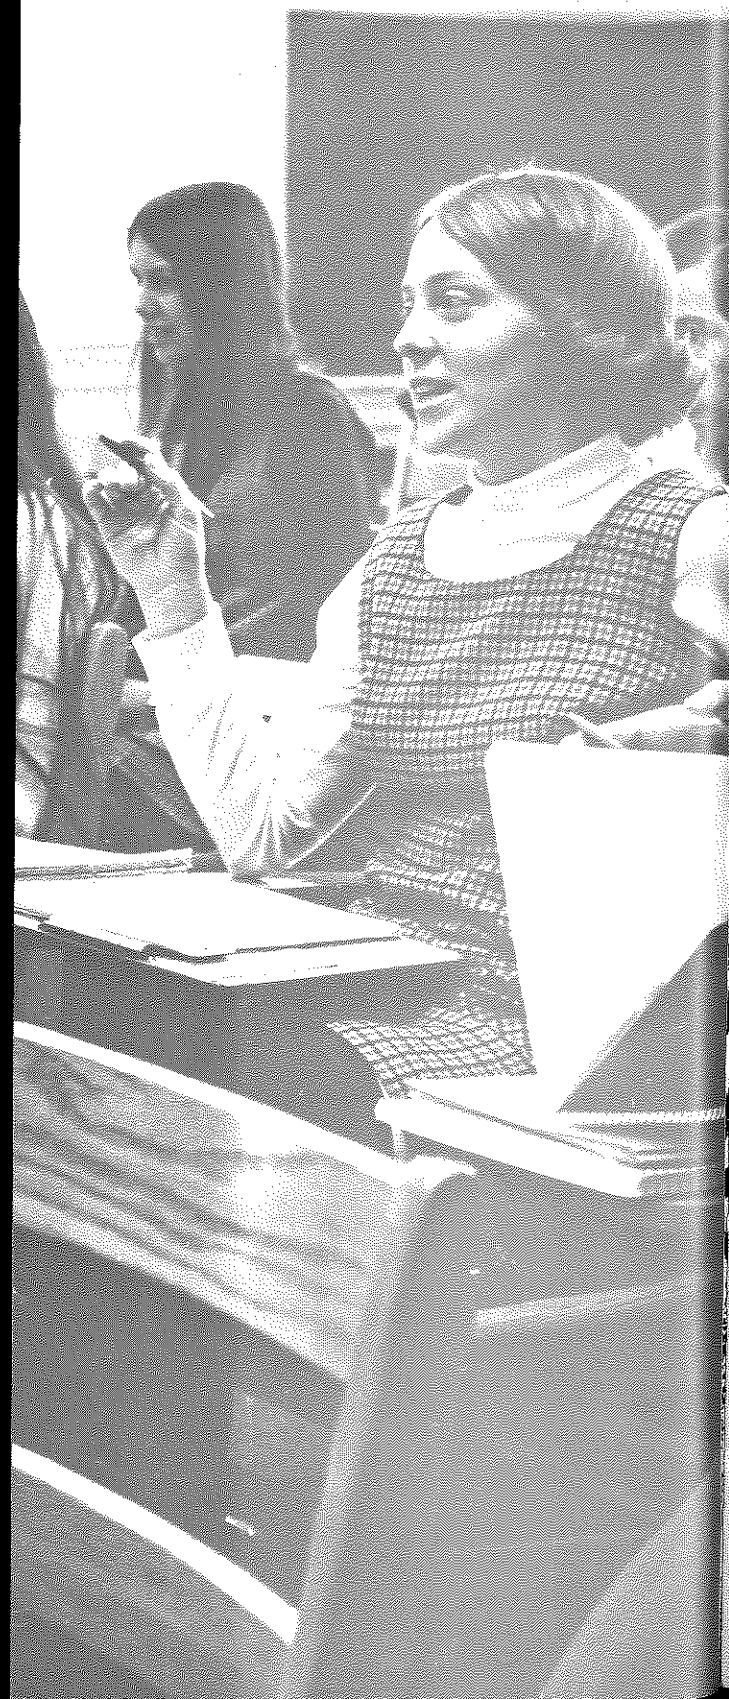

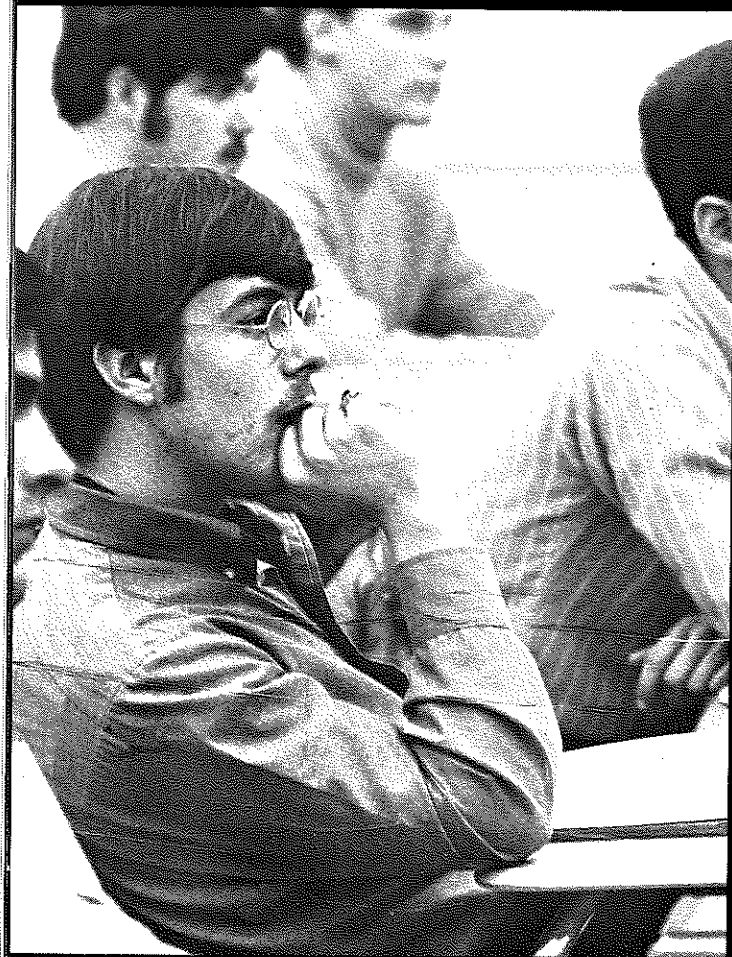

Tomorrow may never come
yesterday is done,
today drags
slowly

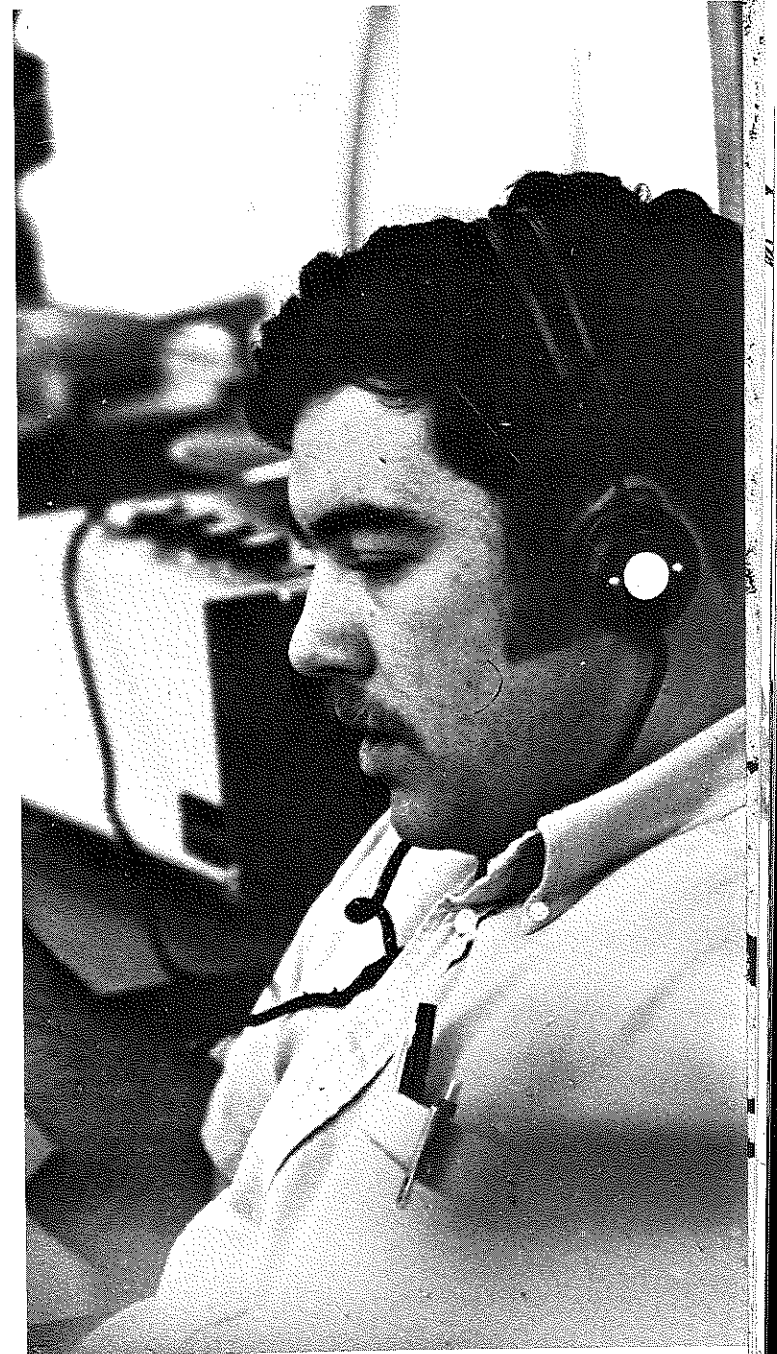

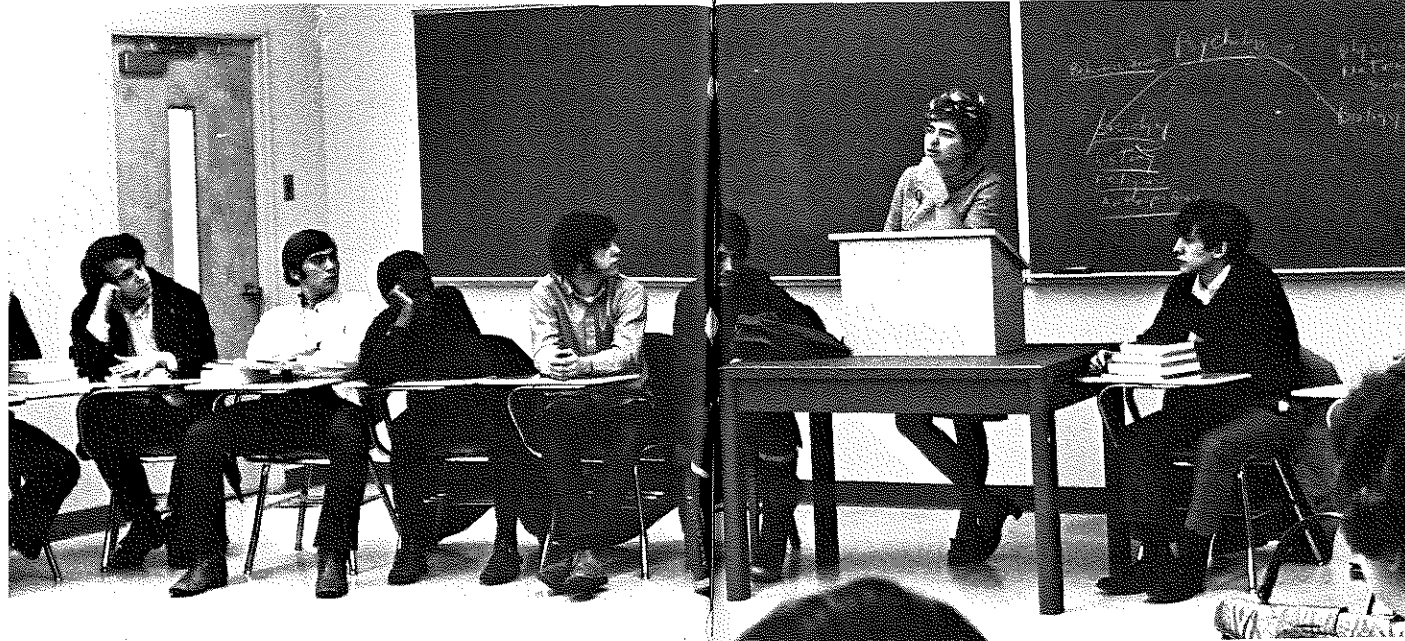

Yesterday's pain
then so brilliantly bright is lost in the soft
haze of today

Even though
it's not yet mine,
I will be there;
Where will you take me?

You the few
Who go on ahead
From mothers and families and factory jobs...

I've been here and there
and wise in my way
made sparks in the dark
and touched and now

You

PEACE

Deade I have peace in my granfather was in war
he told us about war
with them was peace
but they want peace
we will make peace
we need peace
