Spring 2021 Appointment Hours:

Monday: 9:30am, 12:00pm – 12:30pm, 3:00pm – 4:30pm

Tuesday: 9:00am – 12:30pm, 3:00pm – 4:30pm

Wednesday: 12:00pm – 12:30pm

Thursday: 10:00am – 12:30pm

Friday: 10:00am – 12:30pm

We know that the end of a horrible 2020 didn’t automatically make everyone’s lives instantly better. We know that there are still food insecurity issues in our community. If you would like to receive supplies, please fill out the online form and all the appropriate sections. Please read all the instructions on the form CAREFULLY, especially the last section concerning picking up your supplies. As with last semester, you will NOT receive a separate email confirming your appointment. If you do not hear from us, please assume that your appointment is confirmed.

Sincerely,
Prof. Crystal Wiggins
and Prof. Todd Bryda

Practice self-care and find coping skills that work for you!

Uplift at home:

- Make an Uplift Kit.
  Fill a jar with ideas for self care and coping to pull from when you need inspiration. Watch a funny movie, read, get outside, call a friend, take a bath, do a puzzle, etc.

- Video chat.
  Use programs like Zoom, FaceTime, and Skype to stay connected to friends and family that you can’t see in person.

- Journal.
  Write about how you're feeling!

- Meditate.
  Take a break from the noise, get grounded, and breathe! Apps like Calm and Headspace are great tools to help anybody practice meditation.
